SCANDINAVIAN MEDIA MOVING AHEAD

Cable Connections On The Increase

In the Scandinavian region, radio and television developments are changing with fair consistency and regularity in all four territories. The advances aren't as fast as some music fans demand, particularly as they see what is going on in some other parts of the world, but generally speaking Denmark, Sweden, Finland and Norway are meeting the challenges of new media, cable, satellite and so on.

According to the pan Scandinavian projects just made, it's estimated that there'll be 380,000 cable-linked homes in Denmark by the end of 1986, with 270,000 in Norway, 225,000 in Sweden and 185,000 in Finland. On household television penetration, the figures are: Sweden, 3.25 million; Denmark, 2.05 million; Finland, 1.7 million and Norway, 1.46 million.

EUROTIPSHEET

EMI Music Worldwide held their bi-annual Senior Executives conference in Scotland during the week from April 6 to April 13. More than 90 delegates from 35 EMI Music companies attended the week of meetings, seminars and surprise visits by various artists. On the photo Tina Turner and Billy Squier are joined by (l. to r.) Don Zimmermann (President Capitol Records), Bhaskar Menon (Chairman EMI Music Worldwide), Peter Jamieson (mg. dir. EMI Records UK), and Ken East (President & Chief Operating Officer EMI Music Europe & International).

UK TO JOIN EUROPE'S TAPE LEVY POLICY

Despite Hassles, Trade Bodies React Favourably

by Nick Robertshaw

Britain is to fall in line with West Germany, France, and other European countries by introducing a blank audio tape levy. Years of record industry lobbying finally paid off on April 15 with the publication of the government's much-delayed White Paper on copyright reform, which promises a levy set at 10% of retail value, to be introduced as soon as the parliamentary timetable permits.

The music business has not got all it wanted. The levy is set at a lower level than was hoped, and exempts cassettes under 35 minutes in length, even though they can accommodate at least ten tracks. No videotape levy is planned, nor is the government taking any immediate action on record rental, which many believe could soon become as great a threat as home taping.

The White Paper says the levy is a payment for rights and should not be seen as compensation for home taping losses. Indeed, with annual revenues unlikely to exceed six million pounds, and much of that destined to be swallowed (continued on page 3)

CAPITAL'S SPLIT FREQUENCY EXPERIMENT CFM Aiming At Over 20's

London's commercial radio music station Capital Radio is to introduce a second programme service on May 4 aimed at the over-20s. The new CFM will broadcast on the 95.8 stereo FM frequency for ten hours on Sundays only, alongside Capital's normal schedules on its AM wavelength.

Programmes will include two hours each from deejays Richard Skinner, formerly of Radio One, and Nicky Horne, music and comedy strand "Brunch", Charlie Gillett's "City Beats" and an evening hour of jazz or popular classics. The service will run from 10 in the morning till 10 at night, with the "Network Chart Show" inserted at teatime.

IMMC GALA LIVE ON MTV!

The New International Talent and Video Award Gala on May 10 will be shown live on MTV in the USA. Other countries broadcasting this event live via satellite include the UK (BBC 2), Music Box (Pan European) and Switzerland. A large number of other countries will broadcast the Gala later in May. They include France, Spain, Portugal, Canada (MuchMusic), Holland (Veronica), Denmark and Yugoslavia.

MTV will start its Montreux programming Saturday morning at 09.00 hours with interviews from the Swiss location building till the 15.00 hours live event. Highlights will be repeated one day later (Sunday 11th) at prime time.

HOT RADIO ADDS

The new hot radio adds on Euro-radio just prior to publication

MADONNA- LIVE TO TELL (Sire)
SIMPLE MINDS- ALL THE THINGS SHE SAID (Virgin)
BILLY OCEAN- THERE'LL BE SAD SONGS (Jive)
WAX- RIGHT BETWEEN THE EYES (RCA)

UNITED KINGDOM

George Michael stays for the 2nd week at no. 1 and he is followed by Falco's Amadeus and Queen's A Kind Of Magic. The anti-heroin song Just Say No by Grange Hill is one of the best movers with an enormous jump from 26 to 5 in its 2nd week. Straight after follows Janet Jackson's splendid What Have You Done For Me Lately; after 6 weeks it now finally moves into the top 10 (6-16). Three more singles change the outlook of the top 10 this week including Big Country (7-10), Five Star (after System Addict, another top 10 success for the Pearson family with Can't Wait Another Minute: 8-14) and Madonna's first true ballad, Live To Tell entering straight in at no. 10. Second best entry for the new Level 42 single entitled Lessons In Love and other major entries include Marvin Gaye with the re-released I Heard It Through The Grapevine (this re-release follows the earlier success that Sam Cooke had with Wonderful World which was featured in the Levy 501 ads; Marvin Gaye's classic appears in another version of the ad), Depeche Mode's brooding A Question Of Lust (new at 29) and Peter Gabriel's Sledgehammer (41).

GERMANY

Geil for the 4th week at no. 1, followed by a surprisingly high entry by Chris Norman's Midnight Lady, straight in at 2! Chris Norman used to be the front singer of the popular '70s band Smokie and the success of this single is most probably due to its being featured in the German police series Tatort. It is quite a traditional pop single with its unmistakable Smokie-sound. Monacan princess Stephanie moves further up in the top 10 (4-8) and Queen entered top 10 (9-15). German synth act Alphaville move in their 2nd week already up to no. 13 (from 37) and the biggest mover has A-Ha with Train Of Thought (15-59). More changes for George Michael (18-32), Erste Allgemeine Verunsicherung (23-39) and Art Of Noise (28-62). Rock Me Baby, the soft reggae-pop of Johnny Nash, is highest entry at 48.

FRANCE

Gold remains at no. 1 for the fourth consecutive week followed by Survivor and Stephanie. The Monacan princess' Ouragan is continuing to rise steadily to the top (3-6). Other good moves for French male trio Partenaire Particulier (7-12), Swiss duo Double (11-17) and Jennifer Rush with The Power Of Love. New entries this week for Sade, David Bowie, Rose Laurens, Modern Talking and Talk Talk.

HOLLAND

The whole of Holland gave up snogging and the Living Doll single is selling like crazy. Cliff & The Young Ones stuck at no. 1 for the second week and they're followed by Prince and George Michael (the latter in a good move coming from 9). Queen move into Top 10 (8-13) and three WEA acts make good moves: Sheila E. (13-19), popular Dutch singer Gerard Joling with his third single Reach (14-27) and highest entry for Madonna's Live To Tell (new at 17). All in all this makes WEA the top selling label in Holland this week by occupying the first two positions of the top 40 (Young Ones, Prince) and an additional of five other good selling top 40 singles.

BELGIUM

Cock Robin stays for the third week at no. 1 and again Modern Talking and Madonna's Borderline follow. Jeanyy is definitely on its way to the top (4-10) and Signe Signe Sputnik crash top 10 with Love Missile (7-20). George Michael causes another reshuffle of the top 10 with A Different Corner moving from 17 to 8 and Cliff & The Young Ones have an utter, utter high entry as Living Doll enters straight in at 10. Just like in Holland, Brooklyn rappin-trio Whistle is doing very well with Just Buggin' (12-25) and Diana Ross is now also taking off in Belgium with the Motown-esque Chain Reaction, already up to no. 15 (coming from 28). More good moves for Simple Minds (20-49), Carrere singer Sandra Kim (J'Aime La Vie; 21-36), and Survivor who have second best entry in the Belgium Top 50 with Can't Hold Back entering at 23.

SPAIN

An unchanged top 5 this week headed by Jennifer Rush, Lionel Richie and Spanish quintet Ole Ole. Jennifer Rush is definitely extremely popular in Spain. Her Spanish version of the Power Of Love has remained at no 1 for 4 weeks now; her English version of the same song has hovered in the top 10 for equally as long and her self-titled LP has topped the album charts for 5 consecutive weeks. Another German product is also doing well: Sandra who has two of her songs in the top 20 (In The Heat Of The Night and Maria Magdalena). The Rolling Stones move to 8 from 16 and Nacho Cano & German Coppini are also climbing well with Dame Un Chupito De Amor (14-21). Only one new entry: Fancy's Bolero.

SWITZERLAND

Only minor changes in the top 10 this week, Bowie further continues his popularity (5-8) and Prince has jumped to 7 (coming from 10). While the UK has released Whitney Houston's The Greatest Love Of All, Switzerland is still very much in favour of How Will I Know, this week moving up to 14 (from 20). And yes, no hype, Signe Signe Sputnik is doing very well (15-28) and highest entry is for Cock Robin's The Promise You Made. It is strange to see this band's popularity in Continental Europe while having virtually no impact in the UK. Other good moves for Culture Club (18-26) and Matt Bianco's Just Can't Stand It (re-entry at 21).

ITALY

Italy has a new no. 1 as Joe Cocker's You Can Leave Your Hat On puts Sting back to no. 3. The success of the single is due to its appearance in the popular movie 9 1/2 Weeks and it is on this song that Kim Basinger does her sensual striptease. The theme of that same movie, John Taylor's I Do What I Do also moves into top 10 and another top 10 newcomer is Kissing The Pink's One Step. Very good move for George Michael (14-24) and Prince is new at 17. Kiss is followed straight after by Kiss Me Licia, the tune of a children's cartoon series. Two more entries for Madonna (24) and the Portrait signing Picnic At The Whitehouse who have their debut single We Need Protection new at 26.

SWEDEN

The independent Stockholm based label Alpha Records is having a great time with two singles entering the top 10 this week. The trio Style won third prize in the Swedish finals for the Eurovision songcontest and enters straight in at no. 1 with Dover-Calais. At the moment of writing the single already shipped platinum (50,000 copies).

Records by new acts as selected by the editorial team of Music & Media for the Pan-European market and beyond. Active radio/tv programmers, who want to programme these records should be aware that these are not necessarily released in all territories. International A&R experts and music publishers on the look out for new deals could contact the original master/publishing owners. Original country and telephone numbers are mentioned as known.

Paris Biz - Black And Blue (Really Blue) (Mekano Records) Sweden
publ. Sweden Music. Master owner: contact Willard B. Ahdriz at Mekano, tel. 8-7829569/631055.
This is very, very good. An intriguing pop single with a slow but definite and forward beat. Enwrapped in a tasteful production, the slightly detached female vocals fare well in this synthesizer backed (blue-eyed) pop composition. A timeless melody and a stylish production, the best product we heard since very long from Sweden. Act now!

Trance Dance - Do The Dance (CBS) Sweden
publ. and master owner: contact George Reispas at CBS, tel. 8-980250.
Infectious percussion-driven pop by a multi-national foursome. Youthful hedonism in a colourful Modern Romance-type of production (done by the son of Motorhead's Lemmy, Paul Inder).

Style - Dover-Calais (Alpha) Sweden
Those Swedish have a penchant for commercial bubble-pop. Although they didn't win the Swedish finals for the Eurovision Songcontest, according to the Swedish youth they deserved so. Easy and comfortable pop that, although not setting the world on fire, could steal the hearts of many in Europe. In two weeks the single climbed up to no. 1 of the Swedish national charts and sales have exceeded platinum.

Secret Service - When The Night Closes In (Sonet) Sweden
publ. Cloudberry Songs. Master owner: Sonet, tel. 8-7670150.
5-Piece Swedish pop act with their follow-up to 'Let Us Dance Just A Little Bit More', one of our euro-crossover picks this summer and currently getting good radio reactions in France at the moment (licensed on Vogue). 'When The Night' is a winsome pop tune backed up with some fine melodic arrangements. Entered the German and Finish charts and good reactions in France. Clip has been shown on Sky and Music Box.

Dollie de Luxe - Carmen/Gimme Some Lovin' (Notabene Records) Norway publ. OAS/Island/Sonet Music. Master owner: contact Geir Bjorhovde at Notabene, tel. 2-691169.
Norwegian female duo mix Bizet's Carmen with Spencer Davis' Gimme Some Lovin'. Opera vocals in a rocky backing to give a novelty effect. From their LP 'Rock Vs Opera' (already silver in Norway; 25,000 copies). The follow-up to their earlier mix of Mozart's aria Der Hoelle Rache (Queen Of The Night) with Jagger/Richards' Satisfaction.

Aina - Any Kind Of Love (Polydor) Norway publ. Terrytunes/Myjha. Master owner: contact Fred Engh at Polydor, 2-37295.
Good looking 21 years old Norwegian in a production by renowned producer Mike Vernon (Fleedwood Mac/Level 42). Pop/rock ditty backed by good vocals and stylish arrangements (a.o. Pete Wingfield on keyboards). From the LP Target Practice on which Mark King (Level 42) and Paul Young's Royal Family are amongst the session musicians. Now out in whole of Europe (excl. UK) through PolyGram Int.

Dingo - The House Without A name (Bang Trax) Finland
publ. and master owner: contact Lasse Norres in Helsinki, tel.: 90-575007/410173.
English translation of the song 'Autiotalo', a huge success for this extremely popular Finnish 5-piece band on which we already wrote several times. They have it all: good looks, self-penned material and a mention in the Finnish issue of the Guinness Book of Records for sales figures of over 170,000 copies of their 2nd album (making it the best selling LP ever in Finland). This accessible pop single with a strong driving beat, will be released through Sonet in Scandinavia and the UK. Watch out!

Gemini - Just Like That (Polar) Sweden
publ. Manuscript. Master owner: Polar, tel. 8-215333.
Duo consisting of the sister and brother Karin and Anders Glenmark, the backing singers for the Chess musical. For this record the co-operation with Abba's Bjorn Ulvae and Benny Andersson is continued and the result is a medium-paced ballad (written by Ulvae and Andersson) that has all the qualities to chart; crystal-clear vocals, an easy and very comfortable production with a sense of sophistication that is hard to match. A formula Top 40 song.
Already new in the Dutch top 40 and a German entry expected very soon. The group recently did promotional visits throughout Europe.

Tone Norum - Stranded (CBS) Sweden
publ. Seven Doors/EMI Music. Tel: 8-646200. Master owner: contact George Reispas at CBS, tel: 8-980250.
Up-tempo rock song with powerful vocals by a twenty year old Swedish singer/guitar player. Tone is the sister of John Norum, lead guitarist of the popular hardrock outfit Europe. The sharp driving production is by the lead vocalist of that band, Joey Tempest. The single is no. 4 on the Swedish chart at the moment and is also a favourite in the popular 'Tracks' programme on the Swedish national channel SR. Follow up to the debut 'Can't You Stay' (see issue 47, 1985).

Only Lonely - Princess (Scandinavian Songs) Sweden
Publ. and master owner: Scandinavian Songs.
A romantic pop ballad in a disco type of arrangement by the Finnish disco act Bogart Co, who are internationally known as Only Lonely (there seems to be a German band with the same name). One of the best sold maxi singles in Finland at the moment and currently at no. 11 on the Finnish Dance Chart. The group has a large teenage following and the hundreds of small pictures on the single cover are from fan mail.

Laban - Caught By Surprise (Mega Records) Denmark
publ. and master owner: contact Mega, tel.: 1-117711.
Charming mainstream pop tune with Bee Gees-like backing vocals by Danish duo Laban. After 3 local language platinum albums, this is their first English release. A simple and smooth production, ready for cross-over.

DEPECHE NOIRE

Three albums cause for a restructuring of the top 10. Depeche Mode's latest album Black Celebration is faring better than its predecessor Singles 81-85, which stuck at 11 last year. Black Celebration moves in its 5th week to no. 5, in a good move from 10. So far the album is charted in 11 European countries.

The highest entry in the European Hot 100 Albums is Chris Rea's latest album On The Beach. It was our definite fave album last week and it still is now. New in Germany, Belgium, Holland and the UK, the album's entry at no. 20 is the 4th highest album entry of this year (following higher entries from Stones, Prince and Depeche Mode).

The Moody Blues made their last album in '83 and, apart from the Blue Jays album and several solo projects, this is their 12th to date. Over the years the band has streamlined its musical concept more and more and have moved into the over 30's market. It is hard to predict what the album will do in Europe, but in America this will undoubtedly be very big. They specialise in melodic and symphonic pop, best exemplified in tracks like I Just Don't Care (Justin Hayward in his most romantic mood), The Other Side Of Life (very catchy indeed) and the soft and mellow It May Be A Fire. And it certainly wouldn't harm you to check out the rocker Rock 'n Roll Over You and the cheerful Slings And Arrows. Try it, it's good.

Greg Kihn always had a low profile in Europe and most of the people only know him through the hit single Jeopardy. It remains to be seen whether he will make his final breakthrough with his new EMI America album Love And Rock

And Roll. We however love his optimistic and un-complicated views on the value of a pop song. His compositions are careless in nature, and mixed with a good sense of humour. Watch out for Kihn's rendering of the Bacharach/David song Little Red Book (once a hit for Manfred Mann in 1966). Further strong selections include Beat Of The Night, Okay To Cry and Paint You A Picture.

The East Londoners The Outfield are receiving quite good airplay in Europe with their CBS debut album Play Deep. A lively combination of power pop and Beatles-esque chording: where Police meets the Knack. NDR in Hamburg reports enthusiastically: "This is our best played album on the station!" No doubt the band with its accessible sound (neatly fitting in the average top 40 radio formats) will be very big soon.

New York/Philadelphia-based quartet Book Of Love (featuring 3 women) just released their self-titled debut album on Sire Records. The band is stepped out of its underground-cult status after touring for Depeche Mode on their 1985 tour in the US. They released their first single called Boy in 1985, causing good club play. This is a band to watch out for with their arty combination of dance- and techno pop. Check I Touch Roses with its catchy feel. Lost Souls and the aforementioned Boy.

More good new albums this week for American disco singer Shirley Murdock (a Roger Troutman production yielding the highlight Truth Or Dare) and Siouxsie & The Banshees who deliver the follow-up to Hyaena entitled Tinderbox.

WHAT DO SIRE, WEA, POLYDOR AND RCA HAVE IN COMMON? THEY ALL LICENSE ALPHA PRODUCT!

STYLE

This year's moral victors in the Swedish heats of the European Song Contest with their song "Dover-Calais". This song is a mammoth hit in Sweden now having sold platinum within two weeks after release! Style are no newcomers to the world of hit success having even reached the higher regions of Billboard's Dance Charts a year ago with their song "Telephone". Style's new LP "Heaven No. 7" is just being released.

PERNILLA WAHLGREN

Blonde bombshell Pernilla sounds as good as she looks! One success has followed after the other in the last year. She started out as a child-actress from an acting family and last year 18 year-old Pernilla stormed on to the music scene. Her single "Love On You" - a big hit in Sweden - was produced by Chris Porter who has worked with amongst others Goerge Michael and Wham. The single is also being released in the Benelux territories. Pernilla's LP has just been released.

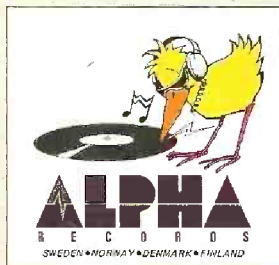

SOUND OF MUSIC

Sound Of Music came on to the scene earlier this year with their song "One More Lonely Night". It was an instant success with Swedish teenagers charting high on national radio show "Tracks" listeners chart. Sound Of Music also further consolidated their popularity by being one of the finalists in the Swedish heats of the Eurovision Song Contest with their song "Eldorado". They are currently riding high on the Swedish charts and the single has gone gold in Sweden! The groups's debut LP will be released mid-May.

PAUL REIN

Paul Rein is a relatively new name on the Swedish music scene but not for long! He actually started performing at the age of 5! Paul's debut single on Alpha "Hold Back Your Love" was released last autumn not only in Sweden but has also been released in other territories like West-Germany, U.S.A. and Holland. Paul's follow-up single "Lady-O" is a must for all dance-floors and is a sure-fire Europop hit. Paul Rein is one of Sweden's most promising singers/performers.

UK RADIO TALK

by Howard Marks

The more astute amongst you will notice that the column has changed its name. In future the format of the column will also change to give you more information about what is happening in Radio & Television, covering pop news in London.

Well lots of interesting things happening, Capital Radio has its new Sunday format about to begin, it will be called CFM, and Richard Skinner will have a three hour Sunday show (see frontpage article for more details). Roger Scott and Jeremy Pascal will co-host a show together.

Interestingly enough, the promos for CFM have featured the voice of Max Headroom. Nicky Horne will be re-joining the station after a long absence. Also at Capital, expect Commander Kane, the flying eye, to return for a series of shows. I have it on good authority that the commander has ordered a new designer flying jacket with five thousand purple sequins for his spectacular return.

At Radio Luxembourg, Johnathan King has started a new series of chart shows. At Radio One, Mike Read has had a week or so to get used to not having to be up at 5am every morning. Mike was last seen heading in the direction of new breakfast show jock Mike Smith's house, with a hold-all full of clocks for sale.

UK Project To Develop Cable TV

The British government is setting up a special working party to help encourage the development of cable television in the UK.

At least five government departments are to be represented in the unit, including the Home Office, trade and industry, the treasury and employment. The first meeting will be held towards the end of May.

The original idea for such a party to co-ordinate the government's approach came from the Cable Authority. Cable television in Britain has experienced many problems in establishing itself thus far. There are around 135,000 subscribers nationwide.

What the government body aims to do is explore ways of boosting cable through government policies and plans, underlining the benefits of cable and making its scope more widely understood. Local government bodies are to be encouraged to become users.

UK PIRATE WINS COURT CASE

Records and tapes used by a pirate radio operator in England, and ordered to be confiscated when he pleaded guilty to offences of illegal broadcasting, are to be returned to him following his successful appeal to the High Court.

There it was ruled that for the purposes of the Wireless Telegraphy Act of 1949, later amended in the 1984 Act, the term "apparatus" in the sense of what a court could order to be seized did cover two loudspeakers also taken from his premises, but not the records and cassettes themselves.

During the original hearing in Liverpool, Jeffrey Rudd admitted carrying on a pirate radio operation and was fined £50 on each of two offences, and also ordered to pay costs. The tapes and records were, he said, in many cases unique or replaceable only at very high costs and he valued them at more than £1,000.

In the High Court, the two judges said the law held that no person should establish or use any station for wireless telegraphy except under a licence. But it was felt that Parliament, in forming the law, had in mind that broadcasting "apparatus" was something other than tapes and records.

lowed up in administrative costs, it could hardly begin to compensate for the 270 million hours of music copied every year in Britain.

Nevertheless, U.K. trade bodies have broadly welcomed the Paper. Says British Phonographic Industry chief John Deacon: "At long last the record industry will derive some small benefit from the massive level of home taping." And IFPI director-general Ian Thomas adds: "The levy will benefit creators of music and will bring Britain into line with other European countries."

The Mechanical Copyright Protection Society has praised the abolition of the 75-year-old statutory license system, now virtually unique to Britain, and says it foresees few problems in switching to negotiated royalty rates, while Musicians' Union general secretary John Morton compliments the government's proposals to strengthen performer protection, notably by the introduction of civil remedies against bootlegging.

BBC/MTV LINK-UP CALLED OFF

Contractual Flaws To Blame

by Peter Jones

The 14-hour television rock marathon planned by the BBC in a satellite link-up with US music channel MTV has been called off, at least for the time being, because of contractual hassles over payment for American videos shown in Britain.

Though details of the spectacular package were initially kept secret by the BBC (Music & Media last week), the show was planned for May 9/10 and news that it was off came only a few hours before a press conference scheduled to name the superstars involved.

The media party was set for London's Video Cafe and BBC disc jockeys Mike Read and Simon Bates were to be there to toast the "unique" project, seen as a first for British television outside the "Live Aid" Anglo-American presentation last summer.

Now the programme "Rock Through The Night" will hopefully go ahead some time in the future, though it has not been officially rescheduled.

Though the rights payments problems proved insurmountable this time round, Michael Grade, BBC-TV programme controller, says he'll certainly try again to get the show on screen.

He says: "Everything was agreed except the problem of clearing US videos for use in the UK. We couldn't work out a practical formula for showing videos on both sides of the Atlantic."

One hassle came because some artists are contracted to different record companies in Britain and America.

However the first part of the planned marathon will go ahead. "Video Jukebox," a two-and-a-half hour history of the music promo starts 9.30 p.m. on May 9 and runs through till the early hours. This sequence will be introduced by John Peel and John Walters and feature clips from the 1930s to the present day, with interviews with leading video producers and artists.

fried E. Log, President WEA Europe. This announcement follows the resignation of Daniel Filipacchi, the company's long-time president, in March of this year. Former mng. dir. of WEA Filipacchi, Bernard de Bosson, is now promoted to the position of President while Marc Exiga returns from his one year stint at Trema Music to the company as mng. dir.

CAPITAL ON FM

independent local radio stations to test ways of using their AM and FM frequencies separately. Despite the wide availability and superior sound of FM it's estimated up to 70% of British radio audiences still listen on AM, and the Capital service should go some way to establishing whether a genuine FM-only audience can be targeted and developed.

Capital managing director Nigel Walmsley sees the 25-40 age group as under-served both by existing music programming and by the record industry in general. It is also likely to be more interested than teenage pop audiences in the quality of sound available from Compact Discs broadcast on stereo FM. Tracks will be played complete without deejay interruptions, and in its pitch to advertisers CFM says: "Playing quality album music uninterrupted by news or weather we will deliver a more discerning audience at much lower cost." As for the size of that audience, even Capital's own executives admit they will just have to wait and see.

7 YEARS NMS

This year's New Music Seminar will be held at the Marriott Marquis in New York City from July 13-16. The seminar has a reputation of bringing together the progressive international music community from all over the world. In years past, the seminar has raised many important political issues and last year's NMS had keynote speakers like Dick Griffey, chairman of Solar Records on South Africa's apartheid and Frank Zappa on the issue of censorship, to name but a couple.

21ST IRISH SONG CONTEST

The Castlebar International Song Contest in Ireland will be celebrating its 21st birthday this year. The contest will take place during the first week in October and will be televised live by the Irish national tv RTE. Songwriters worldwide, professional and amateur, are eligible to enter.

The Castlebar International Song Contest started off in 1966 as an Irish song competition intended as a prolonged tourist attraction. Encouraged by its success, the contest was repeated year after year. For more info contact Gisela O'Connor, GISG, 10, St. Helen's Road, Booterstown, CO. Dublin, Ireland.

VID CLIP PRODUCTION DECLINES US Labels Return To Selective Marketing

Several major US labels have decided to reduce the amount of videos made to promote their artists. The decrease in clips is not seen as a negative move, but rather a return to more selective videomaking. The last few years have seen a boom in such creations, but label video executives are now seeking a more practical and cautious output.

Arma Amdon, CBS Record's vice-president of product development says that video companies had reached the point of making a video for almost every single released. "Now, we feel that's unnecessary. We see no real benefit in doing videos for mid-chart singles."

The record company executives are now realising the necessity for more overall planning in promoting an act. To illustrate this point Len Epan, senior vice-president and general mgng of Polygram Music

Video says: "We might not want to make a clip for a band's first single, for instance, but rather use that song to establish a position for them - and then the second single might become a video." Defending the production slow-down, Amy Stanton, A&M Record's associate producer of videos says that in the past a lot of money has been wasted on videos that neither worked nor helped sell records and the company now wishes to avoid this.

Many video companies are beginning to feel the pinch and producers and directors who have been involved with video clips for several years are now turning to tv commercials and industrial films for their livelihood.

The unanswered question however remains: will the decline in clips seriously hamper the future development of artists? (The editor would welcome your comments on the issue.)

Globe Theatre, Shaftesbury Avenue, London W1, tel. 1-4377122/4372860

'Time', the musical set to take over from 'Absolute Beginners' as the scourge of London's critics is the subject of a new row. David Soames and Jeff Daniels who wrote the music and lyrics claim that Dave Clark is taking too much credit for the show. They admit that he got it on to the West End stage, injected the original script with new ideas and guaranteed its success with Cliff Richard and Lord Olivier, but they want it known that they, not Clark were responsible for its creation. Judging by what the critics are saying, this anonymity might just work out in their favour!

A quick look into the studios reveals that Bob Geldof is recording a new album together with the Boomtown Rats. Elton John and Cliff (where does he find the time?) Richard have got together at long last to record what is bound to be a chart success. The song entitled 'Slow Rivers Run Cold' was originally intended to be just a track on Elton's next album...we shall see...

Yet more Cliff: with the chart-topping success of his reworked 'Living Doll', he's become the first artist to achieve a UK Number One in four different decades. He did it twice in the 50s, seven times in the 60s, and in the 70s just made it, but only with a few months to spare, via 'We Don't Talk Anymore'.

Meanwhile, Mick Jagger and Daryl Hall have also teamed up. Dave Stewart is producing their song for the new Walt Disney film 'Ruthless People'. It seems that Mick has really caught that film bug, next month he's off to the south of France to begin filming 'Laughter In The Dark'. Co-starring with Maximilian Schell, Jagger plays the part of a real lady-killer.

Still on the big screen, more news about 'Labyrinth', the new Jim Henson film starring David Bowie. We can tell you that Bowie plays the part of Jareth, the ruler of a kingdom of goblins and other strange creatures. He's one of only two "human" parts of any significance in the picture, the other going to newcomer, 15-year-old New Yorker Jennifer Connelly who debuted in 'Once Upon A Time In America'. She plays a girl called Sarah who enters Bowie's kingdom to rescue her young brother. Special effects supervisor on the film is George Gibbs, who worked on 'Indiana Jones and the Temple Of Doom' among many others.

LAUNCH OF VIRGIN VIDEO

Following the acquisition of the VCL Group of Companies, Virgin Video was largely restructured earlier this year. One of the major changes was the creation of a new and separate music video division Virgin Video, which will have its own label identity. This is headed by general mgng Angus Margerison and international music video mgng Nadia Ostacchini who both joined Virgin from PMI. Tessa Watts has been appointed as director of Virgin Records Video Productions.

The first music videos to be made from Virgin Video include ones for Feargal Sharkey, Tom Petty and James Brown, all of which will be released this week. Feargal Sharkey is a 6-track 30-minute tape which spans his solo career since splitting from The Undertones. The video will feature several of his chart-topping hits including A Good Heart, You Little Thief and his new single Someone To Somebody. James Brown/Life In London is a 60-minute programme filmed by Don Coultts at one of Brown's three sell-out Hammersmith Odeon concerts last year. Tracks include many of the artist's classics such as It's A Man's Man's Man's World and Papa's Got A Brand New Bag. Tom Petty's Pack Up The Plantation is a live recording of a concert in Los Angeles last year and includes some of Petty's best tracks, Refugee, American Girl and Don't Come Around Here No More. Virgin is co-promoting this tape with MCA which will be releasing a 12" single comprising the live version of Refugee featured on the video.

Two more videos are to be released this month: Take It Or Leave It, a re-release of the 1982 Madness Movie and Bronze Rocks which is made up of 12 heavy metal tracks from Motorhead, Girls School and Robin George.

OLDFIELD SHINES

Virgin have made a video to accompany Mike Oldfield's latest single, Shine, which features the vocals of Jon Anderson who co-wrote the lyrics with Oldfield. The video was directed by Oldfield and was put together in his State-Of-The-Art audio/visual home studio, although a lot of the filming was also done in Barbados. Oldfield's studio comprises a professional audio-visual system bringing together an editing and mixing desk with a video production console, as well as an Aurora, a machine for animation, and a Quantel Mirage. The video to the Shine reflects Oldfield's belief that it is possible to create music and video simultaneously, by making music videos which offer a complete audio-visual experience *

Directors International have come up with a video to Matt Bianco's Dancing In The Street. Directed by Pete Cornish, it is a performance piece combining romantic shots of Mark Riley at dawn *

Peter Care has directed a video to Hipsway's Ask The Lord. It was shot at East Greenwich's gasworks in London, promoted by GLO * Brian Ward of Midnight Films has directed the video to Sade's Never As Good. It features Sade involved in horse and car chases around Seville with the artist doing all her own stunts. The new video to Fra Lippo Lippi's latest single, Everytime I See You, was shot in a warehouse and directed by John Scarlet Davies of Aldabra.

language radio service. MTV runs an advertising-supporting commercial tv channel.

There's wide cabling in Finland and Sky channel, Music Box, TV5 and Screen Sports are all received. Finland, with Norway, was in fact the first to take Satellite TV (as it then was) broadcast back in April, 1982, when it first started operating. There are some regional radio stations in Finland, plus recently-licensed private radio stations carrying advertising.

In Norway, the broadcast organisation is NRK, non-commercial and operated by an independent state enterprise. Radio One and Radio Two, plus about 17 regional services, are encompassed by the NRK umbrella, and there's one television channel.

In the spring of '82 the Norwegian government granted permission for local radio and TV to begin on a non-commercial basis. A lot of radio stations, mostly located in the main towns, sprung up albeit still having difficulties in surviving.

But as in the other Scandinavian regions, liberalisation of broadcast laws is in progress, notably over the previously restricted cable operations and over the no-advertising ban.

Dingo - Bang Trax

Male quintet Dingo is a success-story in Finland at the moment. Their initial album entitled Nimeni On Dingo (My Name Is Dingo) achieved platinum with sales of over 100,000 copies, and their 2nd album Kerjalaisen Klitakunta sold over 70,000 copies on the day of release. The sales currently exceed 170,000 copies, a figure sufficiently impressive to enable the band to enter into the Finnish issue of the Guinness Book of Records.

All of Dingo's lyrics are self-penned and their accessible tunes bring them success after success. They are currently promoting their new album Pyhaklaani which has sold over 65,000 copies. The album is about to be released in an English version. They have already released an English version of a single entitled The House Without A Name (see page 15) which is being released by Sonet in the UK and Scandinavia and they recently appeared on both Swedish TV and Sky Channel.

Secret Service - Sonet

The Sonet Group- The Scandinavian media company.

The Sonet Group is involved in all kinds of activities, including records, publishing and film and video. It also owns a studio complex where many international artists record (U2 did their Unforgettable Fire video at the Sonet studios).

On the record side Sonet represents leading UK labels like Chrysalis, Island, Jive, Mute and Stiff for whole of Scandinavia as well as the US labels Curb and Alligator, and The Italian independent Baby Records. Secret Service is the local act represented by Sonet and M&M featured them many times in the new talent section. The video of When The Night Closes In was featured on both Sky Channel and Music Box and has done well in several Continental territories. Bobbysocks, last year's European Song Contest winners, signed to Sonet for the world outside Sweden. Their new single 'Waiting For The Morning' looks likely to improve on the sales of last year's 'Let It Swing'. Finland's leading rock act Dingo (yet another new talent artist) is signed to Sonet and the label also represents the Danish local rock acts Danseorkesteret (debut album heading towards gold).

The Sonet group is a distributor whose latest theatrical release 'Trois Hommes Et Un Couffin' is currently a smash hit for the company. A package of Alain Delon films will be launched later in the spring. On the production side of videos, Sonet Film will participate in The Golden Rose '86 Festival in Montreux with 'Rendez-Vous In Rio', a 42 minute long programme from Brazil featuring Toots Thielemans, Sivuca and Silvia Vrethammar. The company has also produced the 25 minutes Secret Service special, When The Night Closes In.

Aina - PolyGram

Watch out for this talented young lady from Oslo. After being spotted in our New Talent section, the PolyGram Norway company received lots of requests for her Any Kind Of Love single. The single will now be released all over Europe (excluding the UK) through Polygram International. It is taken from her album Target Practice produced by Mike Vernon (famed for his productions on the Blue Horizon label he produced in the sixties for acts like Chicken Shack, Fleetwood Mac, Ten Years After and recently Level 42). A good pop/rock album featuring well-known English musicians like Mark King (Level 42), Pete Wingfield and Paul Young's Royal Family.

"Aina is an artist we believe in a lot and we know she's going to make it internationally very soon", says Fred Eng, label manager of PolyGram. We can only whole-heartedly agree!

Dollie De Luxe - Notabene Records

Female duo Dollie De Luxe have a long history of local success behind them. As 16 year olds they received the Grammy award for the youngest artist ever. Their first act sold 50,000 units (in a market of only 4 million people) and since then they have released another three albums, Dollie's Diary, Lime Light and Dollie De Luxe. The duo has toured extensively and Notabene believe they are now ready for international product. Their new album Rock Vs Opera, a blending of 2 musical forms is to be released in most European countries at the end of the year. It was released in Norway in January of this year and has so far reached silver (25,000 copies).

Monaco Blues Band - CBS

If you want your rock & roll hot, exciting and down to the bone, try the Monaco Blues Band. A favourite on the European club scene where their mixture of ZZ Top, Blues Brothers and nitty gritty r&r receives good responses.

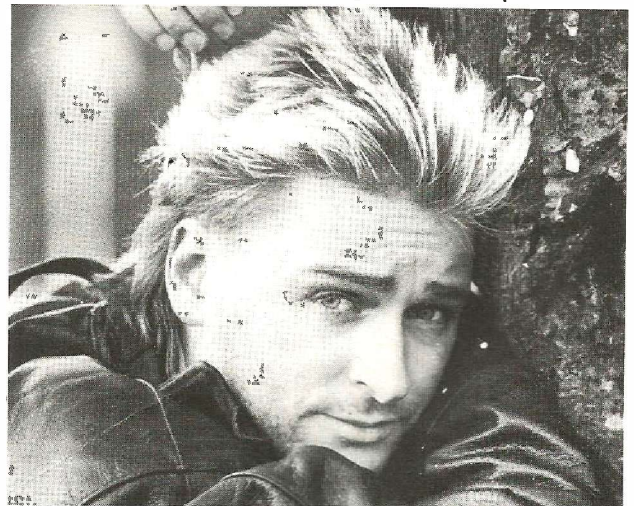

Jorn Hoel - Polydor

An upcoming Norwegian singer who achieved 2nd place in the Norwegian finals for the Eurovision Songcontest with the song entitled 'Inkululeko'. He combines strong charisma with impressive vocals. The Norwegian PolyGram company is planning to record an album very soon with an English or American producer.

Laban - Mega Records

Male-female duo Laban is currently one of Denmark's best selling acts. Having achieved 3 consecutive local language platinum albums, they are now ready, says Martin Dodd, product manager Mega Records, to tackle the international market with English language product. Laban is made up by Leccia Jonsson and Ivan Pedersen and their first single went straight to no. 1 earning a gold record in the process. They are undisputedly the no. 1 pop and dance act in Denmark. Their current single called 'Kold Some Is' is now available in an English version entitled Love In Siberia, as is Caught By Surprise (see New Talent page 15). Their material is ready for release throughout most continental territories as well as Austria, Canada, South America.

Singles Guide

That wicked Dr. Robert certainly knows how to write songs. Already our fave track from The Blow Monkeys classic album Animal Magic, RCA has now released Wicked Ways on a single as well. This is great dance stuff, embodying Stax-sounds with white Philly soul. Continental Europe is still under the spell of Digging Your Scene, but this one is already yielding very good response in the UK.

The Metal Aid For Africa, the Hear 'N Aid project, deserves your utmost attention as all proceeds go to the USA For Africa fund and at the moment airplay on the Stars single is rather poor.

The flood of bands coming from Down Under is impressive and many of them release a sort of pop music that is well-crafted, well-arranged and on the average well-written. However a lot of these bands like INXS, Mental As Anything, Divinyls, Jimmy Barnes, to name but a few, are somehow getting better responses on the Continent than the UK. The Church is an Australian band that was founded in 1980 and has in the meantime released a couple of albums. Their latest single through EMI is a brooding popsingle with a mesmerizing sound in an overblown production. Very impressive and we foresee a bright future for this band.

Early last year Jimmy Ruffin recorded a single for EMI together with Greg Walsh (of the B.E.F. production team) entitled There Will Never Be Another You. This year the Motown legend teams up with Heaven 17 for a Virgin single entitled The Foolish Thing To Do, a polished Philly-soul track which could however use some more punch.

The sunny Bangles are still firmly planted in the European Hot 100 and Airplay Top 50 with Manic Monday. Their new single If She Knew What She Wants is just out through CBS and this time it features the songwriting talents of Jules Shear who recorded this 'Mersey-ful' single for his last lp.

Precious Wilson's new single The Jewel Of The Nile is the theme to the soundtrack of the same movie and after Billy Ocean's When The Going and Ruby Turner's I'm In Love, it could be the 3rd successful single from this OST; written by Britten and Lyle (who wrote Tina Turner's What's Love Got To Do With It) the song is a styleful production featuring Wilson's sensual vocals.

More strong releases from Sly Fox (rock rap in a Joan Jet mould), Tracy Ackerman (Princess-like pop, already a club hit in some European countries), Joe Jackson (Right And Wrong) and the second single from PIL's latest album entitled Home.

David Bowie rules: already for the 5th week at the top of the Airplay Top 50 and the new no. 1 in the Hot 100!

This week Absolute Beginners is followed by Queen's A Kind Of Magic that is shooting up all radio charts in Europe. Madonna enters the Hot 100 this week (highest entry at 18) and in the Airplay Top 50 the single shoots up from 20 to 5. It remains to be seen however whether this single can match the successes of the Like A Virgin singles of last year. A very popular single for Style Council as well; their Have You Ever Had It Blue is already top 10 European Airplay and Simple Minds are doing equally well with All The Things She Said (10-15).

Peter Gabriel is in his most soulful mood ever and his latest single Sledgehammer has highest entry in the Airplay Top 50 at no. 19.

Returning to the Hot 100, apart from Bowie's new no. 1, there is a lot of other excitement. George Michael has already the 3rd best selling single in Europe and Culture Club enter top 10 (9-12).

A big jump for Living Doll as well: after 6 weeks the charity single moves from 23 to 10.
