by Abi Dantuvala

BBC's Michael Hurll, producer of the IMMC (International Music & Media Conference) Gala to be held in Montreux on May 15, has announced the names of the emerging international acts which will be presented to an estimated audience of over 100 million viewers in 15 countries. The acts have been selected from three continents and include Robert Cray, Bob Sinfield and Tesla from the USA; Mental As Anything, John Farnham and Crowded House from Australia; and from Europe, with the UK as talent leader, come The Cure, Cutting Crew and the Scottish band Live & Money. Continental European entries are Stephane from Monaco, Bonnie Bianco who is no. 1 in Germany at press time, plus Italian acts Gianna Nannini and Maria Banari. Germany further presents new solo artist John Christian. UK signed act Terence Trent D'Arby brings the tally to 15. Alison Moyet will be one of the special guest stars appearing in the 120 minute tv broadcast. The 1986 IMMC helped a number of acts to break in a big way internationally with major successes for Simply Red, Cock Robin and Animation. This year's show will be hosted by BBC's Mike Smith with Italian tv presenter Kay Rush. A large number of television companies will be showing the gala, most of them live. These include Music Box, Video Music Italy, Much Music Canada and NHK Japan as well as a string of national broadcasters from the European Broadcasting Union (EBU) countries. In the US, the show will be presented by MTV and later, some channels will be shown on syndicated networks. The show will include the presentation of the annual IMMC Video Awards and the IMMC Children Of The World Video Clip Award. The stars lined up for the Montreux Rock TV Show, which is being held during the same week, will be announced shortly.

British Telecom To Lease Channels To Astra

by Nick Roberts

British Telecom has announced agreements with both Eutelsat and SES (Societe Europeenne des Satellites) to lease up to 19 available channels on the proposed Eutelsat 2 and Astra satellites. The deals allow the UK telecommunications giant to lease capacity and sell it on to programme suppliers broadcasting to Europe. A new earth station is to be built on the Isle Of Dogs in London to handle the uplinks. British Telecom (BT) will have up to eight of the 14 channels on the Eutelsat 2 satellite scheduled for launch in 1989, and up to 11 of the 16 channels on Astra, to be launched next June. Says British Telecom International Managing Director, Anthony Booth: "This is an important step forward in our commitment to UK broadcasting industries."

Surprise Winner To Represent Belgium At Eurovision

Brussels - 38-year-old Liliane St. Pierre has made a spectacular comeback to the Belgian pop scene by winning the national Song Contest which means she will represent Belgium at the Eurovision Song Contest on May 9.

Liliane St. Pierre won the competition with just five points ahead of the runner up, Bart Kaesl, with a song she wrote herself, 'Soldiers Of Love', about the increasing amount of violence seen daily in the media. There were 11 contenders in the contest and the selection was made up of points awarded by a 'professional' jury of press and music business representatives, plus votes from the public. While the official jury put St. Pierre in sixth position, two of the five Flemish provinces entitled to vote gave her top marks which put her in the overall lead.

Swiss Lead The Way In CD Sales

By Pierre Haesler

CD hardware sales topped 100,000 units in Switzerland last year and will be at least 30% higher in 1987, giving the country a market which has a population of 6.5 million, one of the highest penetration rates in the world.

High per capita income combined with a traditional enthusiasm for new technology contribute to the strength of the Swiss CD market, which has also been boosted by drops in hardware costs. CD players at the lower end of the market now retail for only around $100, and though CD revision still sells for about $25, lower software prices are expected by mid-summer.

The buoyant CD sector helped make 1986 a satisfying year for the Swiss consumer electronics business generally, with retail sale of hardware, such as Walkman audio and video worth almost $650 million. Philips, Panasonic, Technics and Sony are competing as importers/distributors, together account for about 40% of the market.

TF1 Battle Rages On

As the Bee Gees make 1987 their big comeback year, completing a multi-media project which combines creative, production and technical know-how under one roof. It's long been a dream of mine to do something independently with film and television. I've seen so much talent spread across the separate fields of entertainment that it got to the point where I had to do something myself to bring it all together. There are still some great barriers to be broken through in the way that vision and music can work together. 'وفقنا للشمال' for the Bee Gees and Gibb originally got together on a project (yet to be unveiled) with the working title 'Miami Nice', involving the many musicians living in the Miami area. Rose: "We're going to be a major player in the marketplace. George Harrison, made it over to films through his company Handmade, so it's only natural a Bee Gee should go for it as well!"

GRO is in bed at the new Bee Gee Company, The Who film. GRO plans to cover music programming, movies tailored for TV, feature films and the multi-media projects which have long fascinated Maurice Gibb.

Commodores Sign Chocolate Contract

by Marc Maes

Antwerp- The Commodores, currently on tour in Europe, have announced a long-term agreement with the Belgian chocolate manufacturer 'Double You Chocolate'.

The announcement came after the band finished their gig at the Manhattan Club in Antwerp. Press and record company personnel received several chocolate bars bearing the names of song titles such as 'Nightshift' and 'Take It From Me', each of a different size and flavour. 'It was in fact the son of Milan Williams (The Commodores keyboard player) who came up with the idea of producing a chocolate bar, "the Commodores' logo on an",' says Mr. D. Croocks, Director of Double You Chocolate, "and we immediately agreed to manufacture nine different kinds and sizes of chocolate bars."

One company unlikely to welcome the news is British Satellite Broadcasting (BSB), the consortium including Virgin, Granada and Amstrad which recently won the 15 year UK franchise to provide a digital service (see MAM March 7). BSB, which is still at the stage of raising finance for the project, will not begin operations until 1990, by which time Astral and Eutelsat 2 between them could be beaming 30 DTH channels, up to half of them English-language.

"The time is right to create a new force in the industry which combines creative, production and technical know-how under one roof. It's long been a dream of mine to do something independently with film and television. I've seen so much talent spread across the separate fields of entertainment that it got to the point

IMMCl Clip Competition Under Way

CD-Video, the extension of compact disc technology into digital sound with pictures, is being warmly welcomed by the world’s major record companies, most of whom plan to have music video titles available for the market launch of the system later this year.

Reporting this widespread enthusiasm, Ian Timmer, President of PolyGram International, said there has also been a good reaction from the Japanese hardware manufacturers and from the retail trade.

Timmer was speaking on the eve of a series of press conferences in Amsterdam (March 18, 19) hosted by Philips Consumer Electronics Division to unveil the new CD-Video.

Great Enthusiasm For CDV

CD-Video could also help solve the record industry’s problems with slumping singles sales. He said the cassettes (singles in cassette form) had not been "spectacularly" successful, but insisted CD-Video could, "more than compensate for the fall in 45rpm disc sales".

New Virgin Venture Creates Videola

by Cathy Inglis

London - A joint venture between the London-based video production company MediaLab and Virgin Video will bring to fruition a project that many a director and artist have dreamed of for many years. "To be called Videola, the new video label is described as a "completely new medium" and an extension of the production of both records and videos. It too will be based in London.

Rather than producing a video promo for a single, Videola will create picture and music simultaneously without the very beginning, forming a synergy between the visual and the audio.

MediaLab’s Director, John Gray, describes the venture as a new mode of expression arising from the ability to manipulate images and sound at the same moment. "MediaLab will be responsible for the creative input, which Virgin Video are concentrating on the financial side of things. Virgin’s Angus Margaretson comments: "At the moment we are concentrating on finding sponsorships, as well as working on pre-sales for television and licensing deals with the US and Japan."

Apart from the clips of the year, MediaLab and Virgin Video will also release three long forms.

The final long form is one of Leve142 to tackle the clip to their latest single, 'Peter Gunn'. The successful director/producer team of Christopher Robin and Roger Hunt at Fugitive Films. Details not yet available.

Mafa Forest at MGMM has just wrapped up their third clip for 'Then Jericho'. In contrast to the first two clips with their sweeping camera moves and fast editing, the latest clip concentrates more on the band itself rather than techniques. Fugitive’s Dominic Ancino is busy working on his first full length feature film. Details not yet available.

Unknown band Ezo are having their very first single accompanied by a clip rumoured to cost around £50000, thanks to generous backing from a Japanese management company.

Virgin Music Video are this month releasing three long forms. The first entitled 'Johnny R Goode' is a compilation of Jimi Hendrix classics, capturing the 60s’ artist performing three live songs as well as some of the concept video. The next, ‘Women In Rock’, honours female rock artists from the 60s through to the 80s including Carole King, Aretha Franklin, Linda Ronstadt, Tina Turner and Annie Lennox. The final long form celebrates the music of Frank Geoge Clinton in a half hour compiliaton entitled ‘The Mothership Connection Live From Houston’. The live tape includes such favourites as Atomic Dog, Get Off Your Ass And Jam and Do That Stuff.

Gianna Nannini
The Sweet Smell of Success

Since Gianna Nannini did her stunnig live performances for the 1982 Eurovision broadcast of the Danish Rockpalast show, she has gone very fast for this Italian rock singer. Her success has led to a management related to new producer, Conny Plank (Ultravox, Enigma) who produced an album 'Latin Lover.' This album has sold over 1,000,000 copies worldwide and 250,000 golden mark in Germany, something that does not happen often for Italian artists.

Gianna Nannini has always been appreciated by the German-speaking countries and while her latest album, 'Prolific' (The Smiling Clown) has reached platinum four months after its release, the singer maintains her position as the most popular artist in Austria following a little bit later of its release. With Nannini's unmistakable passionate vocals, this beautiful ballad is sure to enter the European charts soon.

Following the success of the album's first single, 'Bello E Impossibile,' a second single, the ti-tie track 'Bello E Impossibile' has been released. With Nannini's unmistakable passionate vocals, this beautiful ballad is sure to enter the European charts soon.

Rita Farouz Breaks Those Walls

So far Israel has never produced any real pop stars; apart from some European music, Israeli talent is virtually unknown in Europe. But Rita Farouz is going to change all that. The 19-year-old made her for- mat as a young singer in the Middle East with her first album, 'Bello E Impossibile,' last year. Since then she has been a hit all over Europe, including Israel, where she played Elia Dottola in the musical 'My Fair Lady.'

THE ALBUMS:

A TRUE LEGEND

With the recent deal that Legend struck with PolyGram, Elkie Brooks’ material is now also available on the continental. Probably the excellent single, No More The Pool, the album of the same name has just been released. Brooks’ spine-chilling voice is at ease both on the slow, moody pop ballads (like Bob Segar’s We’re Goin’ Downtown, and Alice Cooper’s Only Women) as well as on the more mainstream stuff such as Break The Chains.

Herb Alpert, co-owner of A&M Records, celebrates the 25th anniversary of his company with the very sophisticated hit song swing your key (Keep Your Eye On Me) produced by Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis (Janet Jackson, Q&D Band), who also wrote some of the material, including Pillow, on which Alpert and his wife Lani Hall sing duet. Alpert’s human trumpet sound is now set against the latest palette of electronic effects.

Muscular rhythms accompany both the disco fireworks of the title track, which was issued as a single recently, and the festive, cheerful and easily accessible instrumental Hot Shot. But the album’s true highlight is the slick disco sound of Diamonds, one of the two cuts with vocals by Janet Jackson. Another fine product of sophistication, much due to ultra modern sound equipment, is Les Annaules A Eau, by the popular French pop-chansonner Julien Clerc, the ‘Elton John’ of France, who had several international hits in the 70s. Clerc’s vocals slant in atmospheric songs, produced into a vast space by ‘Sir Michael Howlett. Recommended: please the(E) En.joue Au Nudiment with solid drum programming and saxophones, Barbor, a dramatic ballad and Mono Alp, the current single with lyrics by Francois Hardy who also adds backing vocals. Check too the pleasant reggae of Héone Deception, the new album from The Colourfield which has Latin rhythms dominating side one and ska tinged R&B on the other. However, producer Richard Gottehrer (The Go Go’s, Blondie) did a good job and Terry Hall, veteran ska-enclosure (on Specials, ex-Pun Boy Two), handles the vocals with great skill. Running Away, A Sky Stone cover and now out on single, has funky backings with heavily muscular heating buttons, stripped top by vocals. Best cuts include the highly attractive In From Down To Distraction which has a nice instrumental Pillow, on which Alpert and his wife Lani sing duet. Alpert’s human trumpet sound is now set against the latest palette of electronic effects. Sophistication again! Beautiful high en-

Light-feathered production with a very positive groove, combining Caribbean sounds with a danceable Mottahah riff. Great for filling up dull parties, but radio programmers will love it as well.
