ALBUMS

ALBUM OF THE WEEK

Arno
Ratata - Virgin

Another good act from Virgin France. Arno has a deep, rough voice that in terms of moodiness and expressive power is similar to Tom Waits. The material is mainly gutsy R&B that occasionally strays into flamenco or, as on the title track, makes good use of dub reggae. This is powerful music that is sometimes quite bizarre but never loses sight of its commercial roots. Especially good are Lonesome Zorro, Mon Sissouen and I've Done My Best.

A Guy Called Gerald
Voodoo Rhythm - CBS

Autumnik - CBS
Autumnik Ray, the debut single by this Manchester artist, charted at least twice over six months on both sides of the Atlantic. The LP is basically more of the same - hard dance beats and minimal melodies with a sprinkling of soul/gospel style vocals. Strictly dance floor material. Check out Mayday (Update) and FX.

Brian Kennedy
The Great War Of Words - RCA/BMG

An excellent debut LP from Irish singer/songwriter Kennedy. The material, like his debut single Capitulation, is largely semi-acoustic folk that is helped along by Tim Friesen-Groen's excellent production. Kennedy has a warm, seductive voice that he wields skilfully around the melodies. Try Hollow, Town, Believe It and Keep A Firm Grip.

Jermaine Stewart
What Becomes A Legend Most - 10

First-rate commercial dance music with a funky Motown feel. Although the tunes are not so original the mixture of slick disco numbers and ballads make the LP highly programmable. Best cuts are Tren De Amor, One Lover and Call Me Before You Come.

Gary Moore
Still Got The Blues - Virgin

Moore, one of rock's finer musicians, pays his dues. The LP features blues greats Albert King and Albert Collins who help Moore to find the perfect balance between his traditional style and his powerful playing. New songs and cover versions are treated with respect on an album that sees singing and playing at his best. Not a bad track on the album.

Roe
Roe - Barclay

Although based in France, Roe is one of the most interesting performers to have come out of Spain for a long time. Backed-up by names like Dave Glenmour, Mory Kane and flamenco guitarist Tomatis this LP is a varied affair. Flamenco/rock is probably the easiest way to describe the overall sound but this fresh sounding, energetic artist primarily has a distinct style of his own. Check out Copita De Nieve, Calipiga and Soledad, an adaptation of 10CC's I'm Not In Love.

Bond
Saturama! - Mercury

Dark, moody rock with more than a little similarity to The Doors. The music is marked by low pitched vocals, whining guitars and atmospheric keyboards held together by tight, punchy rhythms. Despite the obvious stylistic similarities the band write mature, interesting songs. Try Candy-O, The Moon and Bell Boy, the latter being the album's most uplifting track.

King Kong
King Who! - BMG Ariola

The debut album by this German four-piece is an attractive and inventive mixture of hard-rock, Zappa-esque trash and 60s psychedelia. The LP was made by a band who are obviously enjoying themselves and that energy is infectious. Very much part of the new wave of German talent. Check out: Flying, Willie Magoo and How Did Your Skull Get In My Confusks?.

Contributors Peter De Bruyn
Kops and Michael Bakker

Lili & Sussie
What's The Colour Of Love - Sonet

Cheerful, light-hearted dance music from Sweden. A fast reggae beat and a dash of European.

George LaMond
Without You - CBS

Despite the abundance of clichés LaMond has an attractive, sentimental voice which blends well with the fast dance beat. Highly programmable.

Alisha Warren
Discover Me - RCA/BMG

A mid-tempo soul ballad with a gospel edge and a glossy production. Warren has a good voice in the mould of Anita Baker or Donna Summer. Promising stuff.

El Norte
Amores Sin Palabras - CBS

Jangly, guitar dominated pop with a seriously memorable tune and lots of reverb. A good single from one of Spain's better groups.

Tongue 'N' Cheek
Tomorrow - Syncope

In line with the current developments in dance music this number has an addictive groove supporting a mixture of melodic, soulful vocals and a rap.

Jane Child
Don't Wanna Fall In Love - Warner Brothers

Quireboys
I Don't Love You Anymore - Polygram

A slow number with some tasteful organ and piano and a haunting tune. Despite the obvious similarities to The Faces this is a band with a future.

Lies Infedels
Rebelle - Trema

In which this worthy French band show their R&B roots. Poprock with a pleasant gospel edge in the chorus.

FAST MOVIES RECENTRY

SINGLES ALBUMS

SINGLE OF THE WEEK

Dee Moe
One Step At A Time - Phonogram
A slow to mid-tempo dance number with a streetwise rhythm and a pure pop vocal line that draws a winning chorus of an otherwise underused performance. Serious hit potential, in part due to yet another excellent production by Paul Staveley O'Duffy (The Beloved). Although the B-Side Can't Win owes much to Neneh Cherry's Heart it also will work a listen.

The Associates

Fever - Circa
After a lengthy gap between releases the Scottish duo are back with a strong single. An unassuming song in a Jacques Brel style with a striking and attractive string arrangement. Fine production by Julian Mendelsohn.

Eros Ramazzotti

Se Bastasse Una Canzone - DDD/BMG
A dignified ballad with a subtle but effective rock feel from one of Italy's most popular artists.

Quartz

We're Comin' At Ya - Phonogram
Not quite a new The Power but, nevertheless, a strong hiphouse number. Attractive, melodic chorus.

Partners Rime Syndicate

54-46 (That's My Number) - Hyena/Epic
A reggae/house version of the 1984 Aswad hit. It has a similar feel to Street Tuff by Double Trouble.

Jane Child

Don't Wanna Fall In Love - Warner Brothers

A powerful and convincing vocal performance by Child. She sounds like Chaka Khan and the production recalls some of Anif Mardin's work. An awesome performance considering Child wrote, played and produced everything.

Quireboys

I Don't Love You Anymore - Polygram
A slow number with some tasteful organ and piano and a haunting tune. Despite the obvious similarities to The Faces this is a band with a future.

Les Infidels

Rebelle - Trema
In which this worthy French band show their R&B roots. Poprock with a pleasant gospel edge in the chorus.
