GIBBONS PRESENTING BIG RESIDENT SUMMER SHOW
MAY 30, AT FOLKESTONE
(Express Staff Reporter)

This year the concert party, a distinctive innovation with exceptional facilities for comfortable within quarters, will be the basis of the Summer Show and is the brainchild of Alex Durnford, who with help will be playing hostess. There is no standing, only seats available on the night of May 30th. The concert party will feature the latest in music from both sides of the border, with special attention paid to the latest in local talent.

ADAM-CAVALL TEAM-UP

Paul Adam, who has his residence in Folkestone and who is taking part in the concert party for the first time, has been appointed as one of the residents of the concert party. Paul Adam has a unique voice and has been very successful in his performances in the past.

TEmGLE SING UP
His NEW VOCALISTS

When Nat Temple takes his new orchestra to Butlins' Margate camp on May 31st (show to which was effectively announced last week's "Swing Around"), he will also be accompanied by two of the country's most promising young vocalists. Both singer Pat O'Brien will be the featured male vocalist, while the vocalist will be supplied by young singer Bobbi Mack, formerly with the Vic Lewis Orchestra. Both Pat and Bobbi are now under exclusive contract to the Temple organization.

BURNS OPERA FOR BUTLINS

Butlins' new opera will be presented on a specially designed stage, including a full orchestra. The opera is a modern version of the classic opera and will feature well-known opera singers. The audience will be able to enjoy a unique experience of opera in a modern setting.

American Commentary by STUART S. ALLEN

Oscar Levant was the soloist in the show "Witchcraft," which recently opened in New York. He is also the only one of the four regular members of the group who has appeared before in the role of the Jon. It is through his playing that the show's success is achieved. Levant's work in this show is considered to be the best of his career. He has been praised by critics for his ability to create complex and beautiful melodies with the piano. His skill in playing the instrument is unparalleled, and his performance in the show is a testament to his musical talent.

Salvatore del Isola
Conductor of the Orchestra in
"OKLAHOMA"

"OKLAHOMA!" is a classic musical that has been used as a tool for teaching students about the history of jazz. The musical features music by Richard Rodgers and lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II. It tells the story of a young man who is lured to Oklahoma by the promise of a better life, but ends up in a town full of the same type of people he left behind. The musical explores themes of love, purpose, and the American Dream through the lens of the Great Depression.

ARAB MUSIC IN ALGERIA

By Geoffrey Nevoy-Bagot

The Arab music in Algeria has a rich history that dates back to the ancient civilizations. The musical traditions of Algeria are a blend of Arab, Berber, and European influences. The instruments used in Algerian music are also unique and are often made from local materials such as clay, wood, and animal skins. The music is characterized by its use of the oud, a stringed instrument similar to the lute, and the neqba, a small drum. The music is often performed in a group setting and is often accompanied by traditional dances. The music is a reflection of the rich cultural diversity of the region.

An Important New "Musical Express" Feature

I AM NEWSPAPER EXPRES.

This page has been newly added, I am allowed to go where I like and to do anything I want-just the same as I can come in and read the radio. Having been around in this town for a while, I don't want to write about it. I may not agree with the local newspaper about the matter, but I think it's important to give you my perspective. I want you to know I'm interested in reading and understanding the world around me, not just accepting second-hand information.

COMMENT

by "NOMAD"

"I see you're not too happy with the changes in your life." Someone said.

"I'm not sure," I replied, looking around the room at the unfamiliar faces. "I don't know if I can call this life anymore."

"What happened?" they asked.

"I don't know," I sighed. "I'm just not sure anymore."

"Could you explain?" they pressed.

"It's just that..." I began, but I was interrupted by a knock at the door.

"Who could that be?" I wondered, standing up to open it.

"It's me," a familiar voice said.

"Oh! It's you," I exclaimed, letting them in. "Come in."

BARGAIN

IN THE NORTH
by Billy Butler

SPRING is in the air, and the tunes are in the towns and cities of the North. The people are ambling along the streets, enjoying the sunshine, and there's a general air of contentment in the atmosphere. It's a lovely time of year, and the music all over the country is just what it should be. The orchestra halls are packed every night, and the dance halls are filled with people dancing the new songs. It's a great time for music lovers, and the feeling is contagious. The music is everywhere, and it's a joy to be a part of it.
