JACKSON FOR THE POTOMAC

Jack Jackson, well known bandleader, will again return to the POTOMAC RESTAURANT next week with an eighteen-piece band. Since he left, CHERRY BLOSSOM and all the other dance bands have been brought in to fill his gap, but Jackson has been with the POTOMAC as one of our best performers.

In an article which appeared in the Washington Post on Friday, William F. King said: "Jackson has been with the POTOMAC for several months. He was previously with the POTOMAC RESTAURANT in the early days of the war, and he has returned to the POTOMAC after a long absence. He is a fine musician and a fine bandleader. He has a large following and is one of the best bandleaders in the city."
A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.

RECORDIANA

By John Davis and Grant Clarke

It's a fact that music is a universal language, and it's been proven that it can bring people together from all walks of life. However, it's not just the music itself that brings people together, but also the way in which it's presented and the emotions it evokes. Musicians have the power to inspire and move people, and these emotions are often expressed through the music they create.

A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.

RECORDIANA

By John Davis and Grant Clarke

It's a fact that music is a universal language, and it's been proven that it can bring people together from all walks of life. However, it's not just the music itself that brings people together, but also the way in which it's presented and the emotions it evokes. Musicians have the power to inspire and move people, and these emotions are often expressed through the music they create.

A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.

RECORDIANA

By John Davis and Grant Clarke

It's a fact that music is a universal language, and it's been proven that it can bring people together from all walks of life. However, it's not just the music itself that brings people together, but also the way in which it's presented and the emotions it evokes. Musicians have the power to inspire and move people, and these emotions are often expressed through the music they create.

A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.

RECORDIANA

By John Davis and Grant Clarke

It's a fact that music is a universal language, and it's been proven that it can bring people together from all walks of life. However, it's not just the music itself that brings people together, but also the way in which it's presented and the emotions it evokes. Musicians have the power to inspire and move people, and these emotions are often expressed through the music they create.

A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.

RECORDIANA

By John Davis and Grant Clarke

It's a fact that music is a universal language, and it's been proven that it can bring people together from all walks of life. However, it's not just the music itself that brings people together, but also the way in which it's presented and the emotions it evokes. Musicians have the power to inspire and move people, and these emotions are often expressed through the music they create.

A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.

RECORDIANA

By John Davis and Grant Clarke

It's a fact that music is a universal language, and it's been proven that it can bring people together from all walks of life. However, it's not just the music itself that brings people together, but also the way in which it's presented and the emotions it evokes. Musicians have the power to inspire and move people, and these emotions are often expressed through the music they create.

A TRIBUTE TO BENNY CARTER

By Hugues Panassié

Although Benny Carter is a name that is high in the jazz world, and one that is not too often heard, there has been a wonderful suspension of one of the swing 'trumpeters'.

Benny Carter is blessed with many assets and has got through his own path only by jazz music. He was born in New York in 1925, and at the age of 5, his father found him playing on the trumpet. He had been listening to the radio for hours on end. He was taught to play the piano by his uncle, but he was more interested in jazz music. He started playing in local clubs andRecording Studios in New York, where he met several well-known musicians, who have publicized his music in several jazz clubs.

As a trumpeter, Benny Carter has made records in Europe, which have been well received. He has also recorded with the greats like Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins, in that order. He has played with the best of them, and his playing style is unique.

Benny Carter's music is a combination of swing and bebop, with a touch of blues.
SWEET MUSIC
By that popular broadcaster
Neal Arden

I've got to write about sweet music. I've got to tell you why I think you should listen to "The Troubadour." For the record, "The Troubadour" is an hour-long show that goes on the air every Monday evening at 9:00 P.M. (EST) on WOR, the New York-FM station. It's a program called "The Troubadour" that has been on the air for the past 10 years, and it's a program that I think everyone should listen to.

The show is hosted by a man named Neal Arden, who is a well-known broadcaster and producer in the music business. Neal Arden has been around for a long time, and he's a respected figure in the industry. He's been involved in the music business for over 40 years, and he's worked with some of the biggest names in the business.

The show itself is very interesting. It's a program that features a variety of music, ranging from classical to jazz to rock and roll. It's a program that's designed to appeal to a wide range of listeners, and it's a program that's sure to please everyone.

Neal Arden is a great host. He's knowledgeable about music, and he has a great sense of humor. He knows how to keep the show going, and he knows how to keep the audience interested.

The show is also very well-produced. It's a show that's designed to sound great, and it's a show that's designed to look great. The production values are top-notch, and the show is a pleasure to watch.

In short, "The Troubadour" is a show that's worth listening to. It's a show that's sure to please anyone who loves music. So, if you're a music fan, you should definitely check out "The Troubadour." It's a show that's sure to be a hit.
COLES IN 'CAFE ON CORNER AGAIN'

The Jack Cole Music Makers, who have been playing at the Cafe on the Corner for some time, will be heard again this week. They will be under the management of Mr. Cole, who has been associated with this establishment for some time. The band will be in residence during the week and will feature special entertainment.

JOHN DENIS ON THE AIR

Join Denis and his Famous Big Band at the New Year's Eve Ball at the Bexhill Hall. The band will feature some of the best entertainment of the season, and the ball will be a big success.

FREEDMAN'S 3 YEARS AT FOLKESTONE

A happy anniversary cake was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Freedman on their third anniversary of their wedding at the Folkestone Hotel. The couple has been happily married for three years and the cake was a fitting tribute to their happiness.

LADDOBROKE BOOKED SOLID

In a week of top entertainment, the Laddoobroke Hotel has booked solid for its main events. The hotel is known for its top-quality entertainment and the booking is a testament to the popularity of its events.

Rose Room

The Rose Room was beautifully decorated for the occasion at the Chancellors Hotel. The atmosphere was festive and the music was provided by the Famous Big Band.

IN THE NORTH:

BONELLI AT BELLE VUE

By Billy Butler

The Coronation Ball, organized by the hotel in association with the entertainment provided by the Famous Big Band, was a great success. The hotel is known for its top-quality entertainment and the ball was a testament to its popularity.

THE CASTLE

A successful line-up of the hotel's entertainment provided the perfect background for the evening. The hotel is known for its top-quality entertainment and the line-up was a testament to its popularity.

CLASSIFIED ANNOUNCEMENTS

Any difficulty in getting MUSICAL EXPRESS?

If so—have it sent to you every week direct and post free!

Send your name and address to—

33, KING STREET, COVENT GARDEN, LONDON, W.C.2

with postal order enclosed for 3s., for one year's subscription; 10s., for six-months subscription.

MUSICIANS

REPAIRS

REPAIRS, any size, at a low rate.

And that new CAFE used to live in the town.

THE PAIN

Business hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday to Saturday.

BOSSWORTH PRESENTS

A New Dance Troupe Competition

BELULAH'S BOOGIE

ORCH.

CHIQUI CHIQUI CHI OL MAN REBO

VEN-VEN

MYSTI ROSSO

SEE THE ATOMIC SPECTACLE

OF THE NINTH

POST-

NEW

BOOSEY & HAWKES LTD.

65-67 DREMAN STREET, LONDON, W,1

Ask your local dealer.

BONELLI AT BELLE VUE

By Billy Butler

The first programme of the new year was presented at the New Year's Eve Ball at the Bexhill Hall. The band was led by Mr. Cole, who has been associated with this establishment for some time. The ball was a big success.

SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY OF VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

The Great Old Man of music, Sir Edward Elgar, is celebrating his seventy-fifth birthday. The event will be marked by a special concert at the Royal Albert Hall. The concert will feature some of the best musicians of the day and will be a great success.

ANSEMERT AT ARTS CLUBS

On Tuesday, September 30th, at the Arts Clubs, Sir Ernest Ansermet presented a new work by Sir Edward Elgar. The work was well-received and the audience was thrilled with the performance.