REX STEWART IN FRANCE

REX STEWART'S head is sitting in a world of its own, and even the most astute of his fans are only now beginning to realize it. He is no longer the same man who first fascinated the world at the beginning of his career. His playing is now very close to the listener's ear, and it is not surprising that he is the only man in the world who can play such music as the French dances and the Spanish marches with such complete ease and perfection.

The banquet started at 11.30 P.M. and ended at 1.15 A.M. The food was very good and the wine was excellent. The atmosphere was very pleasant and the company was excellent. The band played for three hours and the audience was very enthusiastic. The players were all at their best and the music was wonderful. The audience was very appreciative and the band played with great enthusiasm.
