SIBELIUS AND ORSON WELLES FOR THE GREAT EDINBURGH FESTIVAL

Big Attractions in Music and Drama

(Musical Express Staff Reporter)

ALTHOUGH BOOKING OPENED ONLY A WEEK AGO FOR THIS YEAR'S INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND DRAMA TO BE HELD IN EDINBURGH FROM AUGUST 19-SEPTEMBER 15, OVER 250,000 WORTH OF TICKETS HAVE ALREADY BEEN SOLD. SO GREAT HAS BEEN THE RUSH THAT IN THE FIRST TWO MONTHS MORE TICKETS HAVE BEEN SOLD THAN IN THE FIRST TWO BOOKINGS OF LAST YEAR'S FESTIVAL.

Of great interest to music lovers is the fact that The St. Men. Andrea Murray, the first for the St. Men. Andrea Murray, the founder of the Scottish National Opera, will conduct the orchestra in one of the world première performances of Sibelius' 'Tapiola'. We understand that it is quite possible that Madame Scherhag will accompany him and the pair may fly to Scotland.

ELLINGTON QUARTET'S SUNDAY DOUBLE

Ellington's quartet, with Frank Dickerson on clarinet, solos for a moment, but his audience seems to be expecting more. Ellington himself is always at his best in London, where he has performed for the last three years.

The "ALL-STAR" ESQUIRE LABEL

The newly formed All-Stars ensemble will record for the first time on Esquire. The label is represented by Norman Granz, producer of the famous "Jazz at the Philharmonic" series.

DOREEN STEPHENS LEAVES SQUARES

With many favours of the Squares, Doreen Stephens will be sent to the United States soon. She has been with them for the last three years, and they have expressed the wish that she will be able to return.

MOFFAT AND MEECHEM ARE IN LONDON

Randelers will be noticed in London today, where they are currently performing at the American Musical Theatre. They are the star attractions of the program, and their success is due to the fact that they are not only excellent musicians, but also excellent actors.

MARTHA RAYE CARRIES ON

In spite of a serious injury suffered by her brother, Leon, who has continued to perform at the Paladium every Sunday, Martha Raye will carry on with the rest of the show. She is scheduled to perform an encore of his popular song, "The Man I Love."
“SWING WILL NEVER DIE!”

The Voice

WHERE ARE WE ALL SLEEPING?

When the stars go down and the morning fog begins to assume,

When the sun is setting and the day is coming to its end,

There is a place where we all sleep, a place where we all dream,

A place where we all drift off to the world of our own.

Round The Turntable

HAMPTON IN "REMEMBER" IT'S WITH YOU

Here's the blues in the "stars" with the "bass" and the "shades"

You've got to be there, you've got to be there,

And the moment you're there, you're there for good.

Dont be fooled, H.M.V. Boys. Although the voices may have changed, the songs remain the same.

We've had our fun, we've had our joy,

But don't be fooled by the H.M.V. Boys,

For they've got a song and a dance,

That's sure to make your heart sing.

Dont be fooled, H.M.V. Boys, dont be fooled again,

For they've got a song and a dance,

That's sure to make your heart sing.

ELLINGTON FOR PALLADIUM

American Commentary
BY STUART S. ALLEN

When the blue-pencil procenade comes to have much anew, Ellington and his band will feature the work of Louis Prima, who has been one of the best of the young American vocalists and who audiences on both sides of the ocean have enjoyed.

MINIATURE SCORES AND THEIR USES

FIFTH of all let us be quite sure that the score is a very important document in an orchestra. It is the master piece of the score and is used in the rehearsal and during the performance. The score is a document of the music, and when it is performed, the score is a document of the music.

Some recent miniatures

THE SCREENPLAY music which is the most common and important of all the various categories of music, has been written for a variety of films and television programs.
