HOAGY CARMICHAEL
AT LONDON CASINO

(Musical Express Variety Critic)

Hoag Carmichael is a remarkable actor experienced in motion pictures. As a song writer he is one of the world's most famous. These two qualities were responsible for an enthusiastic welcome for the first of his shows at the London Casino on Monday night. The success with which the audience responded to the titles of his songs was proof of their lasting appeal. New to the London Casino, perhaps this very element may have been responsible for the fact that Jimmy Lockwood nearly stopped the show in the first half by doing things he must be proud to remember. The cast which was introduced as it was played, was a splendid addition to the musical entertainment of the evening. (This article cannot be attributed to Hoagy Carmichael.)

HEATH SWING

The audience at the London Casino on Monday was treated to an excellent evening of music by the Heath Swing Band. The band, based on the popular London Palladium, presented a varied program of music, including a production of the song "Butterfly Swing." The audience was thrilled with the performance and gave a standing ovation to the band.

PETER LEGH AT TROCADERO

Peter Legh has taken a step into the world of music with his latest production, "The Silver Wedding Waltz." It will be presented in London and other cities throughout the country. The show features a cast of talented musicians and dancers, including a special appearance by Jimmy Lockwood. The production will be directed by John Williams, who also directed the successful "The Silver Wedding Waltz."

SKYROCKETS' AIR-DATES

The Skyrackets, featuring the dynamic duo of Linda and Max, will be heard on the radio throughout the country. Their latest single, "The Silver Wedding Waltz," is already a hit and is expected to remain so for some time. The band is led by John Williams, who also directed the successful "The Silver Wedding Waltz."

ROWE RESIDENTS

A week ago, a group of local musicians played for the Rowe residents at the local church. The group included Peter Legh, Linda and Max, and John Williams. The event was a great success and raised funds for the church.

THE MEANING OF "STATESIDE"

The meaning of "Stateside" is not as clear as one might think. It is often used to refer to the United States, but it can also mean "at home" or "in the States." The word "Stateside" was originally used to refer to the United States, but it is now also used to refer to the United Kingdom or the Commonwealth. The word "Stateside" is often used by British or Commonwealth audiences to indicate that a show or event is taking place in the United States.

“THE SOUND TRACK”

When this critic's script was handed back, the editor asked for a voice to add a rather bland note, well, not so bland to the new Baptist message. Each week a new paper is added to the collection of publications that speak in favor of one side of the religious controversy. The editors are well aware that the many voices raised in favor of the Baptist message are much like the theme of a good song, each note providing a variation upon the same theme. MUSICIANS SUSPENDED IN THE AIR!

Old Fashioned Quintet in the new Sid Field Picture

By NORMAN HUDIS

Suspended in mid-air on the opening day of the Sid Field production, was a qutting, old-fashioned quintet in the new film, "The Sound Track." The quintet, consisting of English horn, flute, oboe, clarinet and horn, will provide the music for the film's scenes. The quintet is led by the clarinetist, also a member of the Sid Field studio orchestra. The film's music is described as "old-fashioned" and is intended to add a touch of怀旧 atmosphere to the story.

Mozart gets a first performance at the Proms with Malcolm Rayment.

Canadian Sid Field premieres on the 10th for the benefit of the Highgate Quintet on the set of the "Gentleman." The current production is described as "a fascinating account of the life of a man who was both a musician and a scholar." The film's music is composed by the famous composer, Mozart, and is intended to add a touch of classical atmosphere to the story.
