THE ELECTION AND WHAT IT MEANS

Voicing of our emotions increases, exaggerated because our circumstances are the rule of the day. Even when the spirit is lost in its own sadness, it is so much the more realistic in its scope and the climate of thought is the more relaxed.

A BOUQUET FOR HOagy!

"The Sound Track"

by

STEVE RACE

HIGHER in today's world of the recording industry, there are few names that come close to Hoagy Carmichael's. In an era of great songwriters, Hoagy stands out as one of the most influential and respected figures in the world of music. His songs have been recorded by countless artists, and his music continues to inspire new generations of musicians today.

Every day, we see Hoagy's influence in the world of music. From the soundtracks of movies to the radio and television shows that we watch every day, Hoagy's music can be heard everywhere. His songs have become a part of our culture, and his music will continue to be enjoyed for years to come.

SECOND THOUGHTS:

by

STEVE RACE

Those of us who do not sing along with songs have become accustomed to the sound of Hoagy's music. His voice is a soothing presence in our lives, and his music is a welcome addition to our daily routines.

But, although we may not sing along, we are still able to appreciate the beauty of his music. His songs are filled with emotion and meaning, and they have the power to touch our hearts.

This is a song that I have always loved. It is one of the few songs that I can truly say I have "owned." It is a song that has been a part of my life for many years, and it always seems to bring me back to a time when everything was a little simpler.

James Dickey's "The Sound Track" is a wonderful example of the power of music. It is a song that has been loved by generations of listeners, and it continues to inspire new audiences today.

"The Sound Track"

“Who's gonna love me when I'm 99? No one, they'll say. Hoagy's gonna love you, and he'll sing it in a way that you'll never forget. Hoagy's gonna love you, and he'll sing it in a way that you'll never forget. Hoagy's gonna love you, and he'll sing it in a way that you'll never forget."
