ARUNDELL PRODUCING "GRIMES"
IN FINLAND
WITH BIG FINNISH
OPERATIC COMPANY
First English Opera

[MUSICAL EXPRESS STAFF REPORTER]

LAST SATURDAY MR. DENNIS ARUNDELL, LONDON, FOR FINLAND TO PRODUCE THE OPEE AT HELSINKI, "FATHER GRIMES," THE FIRST ENGLISH
OPEE TO BE PRODUCED IN FINLAND. IT WILL BE PRODUCED BY THE FINNISH OPERA COMPANY AND SING IN FINNISH. THIS IS A GREAT

THE BIG BRASS BAN FROM PETRILLO!

The SOUND TRACK
by STEVE RACE

LEN HOBBLE

saxophone and piccolo, alto and tenor saxophone, clarinet, and a host of other instruments. This arrangement features electric bass, drums, and percussion. The sound is rich and full, with a strong emphasis on the brass section, which adds a layer of depth and warmth to the overall sound. The composition is well-crafted, with a clear structure and a strong central melody. It is a testament to the skill and creativity of the arranger and the musicians involved. The performance is energetic and engaging, with the brass section taking center stage. The use of electric bass and drums adds a modern touch to the traditional brass ensemble. Overall, this arrangement is a beautiful and well-executed piece of music that showcases the talents of the performers and the vision of the arranger.
