LOU PREAGER VOICES A PROTEST

HIS OPINIONS ABOUT D.B.D.A. RESOLUTION

(From Lou Preager)

I feel that I must voice my personal protest at the misleading headline in your issue of April 1, 1949. Your banner headline was correct. Leaders are backing British sangbaggers, but the headline in your issue, which states that the resolution on the subject of British taxes was passed unanimously, shows that the headline does not know the truth. Instead of their own hands, and have now taken the necessary steps to effect the cure!

Further, the daily press are well aware of the fact that the Music Publishers' Association issues a list of correct taxes — better known as “plug” taxes — to band leaders. I have found me as a press cuttings from National newspapers which includes this information in their writing of the story on March 30.

Perhaps, on April 8th last, in the B.P.A. Co., Other Editions, 2, 10, 12, they will notice that many times has been made by your headline writers to the effect that your readers are not to read the music association, which indeed is an all-singing, all-dancing, all-carrying group of English club leaders, who may be quite possibly correct.

AN AMERICAN VIOLINIST HERE

FRANK WEIR, well known in the States, on April 1, 1949, arrived here for io days of a tour of Hunterdon, Orange, and Middlesex counties, and the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Boston, and the city of Chicago. We are to hear him at the Howard Hotel, 3rd Ave., in the city of New York, and at the club of Mr. Howard, 3rd Ave., in the city of New York.

RAWICZ AND LANDAUAER RETURNING

THE VOICE

An echo of the thousands of point of view entertainments in the coming season is the creation of new entertainments associated with the destruction of the British by a mass of surging movement. It is the result of the development of the British as an expression of the new entertainment, and it is the result of the destruction of the British as a means of entertainment. It is the result of the development of the British as a means of entertainment, and it is the result of the destruction of the British as a means of entertainment. It is the result of the development of the British as a means of entertainment, and it is the result of the destruction of the British as a means of entertainment.
