WHAT HAPPENS AT PALLADIUM?
SENSATIONAL RUMOURS ABOUT 'SKYROCKETS' ORCH.

Will world famous band be affected?

THIS WEEK LONDON IS AGO WITH THE MOST SENSATIONAL RUMOURS TO HIT THE TOWN FOR MANY A DAY. THE RUMOURS CONCERN THE SKYROCKETS, THE BAND WHO PLAY AT THE PALLADIUM.

Two weeks ago this newspaper was informed that Wolf Philips, their conductor would be leaving that orchestra, and we were then able to hold up the story pending clarification. This we did in spite of the fact that Philips had already left.

Now comes the big one: that Philips has been offered a conductorship of one of the orchestras of the 'Big Four' in London.

Although this is by no means a certainty, we have every reason to believe it is so. The fact that Philips has been offered a position in the world's biggest orchestras is of paramount interest to us.

Whether any member of the band will stay with a new appreciation is another matter.

ANOTHER SERIES FOR BENSON

Although the popular Lesley Nelson series has been declared by Benston as the most successful of the series, the new series is expected to attract a substantial number of new audiences.
