MUSICAL PEACE GROUP

Sponsored by Sir Adrian Boult

WILL PARTY POLITICS BE INVOLVED?

Several weeks ago Sir Adrian Boult and Arthur Benjamin, discussing the fact that some artists and writers have their own representative organisations for the furthering of peace moves, decided that the Musical Peace Group should also lend its words to such movements. Therefore, the group has been inaugurated.

Several hundred famous musicians and conductors in every field of music have been invited to join the group. The aims of the organization are to further peace moves to the best of their abilities.

The Vice-Presidents who have been named to include in their musical peace activities are: Arnoldus, Paul Hindemith, Arthur Benjamin, Bengtsson, d’Indy, Vengerov, R. Strauss, Schoenberg, Seefelder, Tomas, Busch, Sibelius, Godard, Robert Frost, Gerhard, and Leopold Auer.

Further names which have been received in this stage of planning include music critics, composers, and conductors.

CLAUDE LUTER BAND FOR ENGLAND?

If present negotiations between the Ministry of Labour and the Wilcos Organisation are successful, it may be possible for the band to leave England.

Negotiations are at present taking place between the Polish Nutrition Office and the famous French restaurant, Chabaud, to ensure that the band’s journey will be smooth.

The band is currently touring the British Isles and is due to leave for Paris in the near future.

LEWIS AUGMENTING WITH STRINGS FOR FESTIVAL JAZZ CONCERT

When the N.J.O. presents its Festival Concert of Modern Jazz on July 14, the progressive fans may anticipate a great innovation when Lewis augment his orchestra to five trumpets, five trombones, five saxophones, three clarinets, four violins, two violas, and two cellos.

WALLY PETERSON FOR LUXEMBOURG

Many fans will be interested to hear that renowned tenor saxophonist Wally Peterson will be participating in the 11th Annual Jazz Festival in Luxembourg. The event will be held on June 28th, and Wally will be performing with his own band, the Wally Peterson Quintet.

Wally will play in Luxembourg as part of the festival's international lineup, which also features top musicians from around the world. This will be an exciting opportunity for fans of jazz music to experience a truly diverse and high-quality performance.
