ROY FOX BACK IN ENGLAND

NEW STYLE COMBINATION

Maurice Kinn discuss itinerary with Roy Fox

PIECES OF EIGHT IN EIRE

FRANK ABOTT TO M.D. 20-PIECE CUBANA ORCHESTRA

BELLE CONCERT SELLS OUT

DEAN AND GIBBONS

THE NOVELLO STORY TO BE BROADCAST

BAKER MEETS OLD FRIENDS AT CAMBRIDGE

Baker meets old friends at Cambridge

U.S. HOLIDAY PREVENTS ALAN DEAN FROM SINGING "JOHN BULL'S BAND"

MORITZ TRIO IN NEW ROLE

MITCHELL TRIO IN NEW ROLE

The Mitchell Trio in new role

July Records

ERIC LAW'S BROADCAST

The above photo, exclusive to "Musical Express" features an old friend of Frank Abbott's at a recent private party at the Norfield Holly with dancing and drinking. Dorothy Dodds, Ernest Lawrence, Len Exeter and Managing Director of the Norfield Holly, Reg Oldham.

PERSONAL MANAGER BILLY FORESTTE INFORMS US THAT FRANK ABOTT, RESIDENT BROADCASTING BAND LEADER AT THE NORFOLK HOTEL, BOURNEMOUTH IS TO MAKE A SPECIAL JOURNEY TO BIRMINGHAM TO FRONT A TWENTY-PIECE LATIN-AMERICAN ORCHESTRA THIS SENSATIONAL MIDLAND REGION PROGRAMME WILL BE PRESENTED AS "ARTISTES IN CONCERT" AND THE BAND WILL BE KNOWN AS THE CUBANA ORCHESTRA UNDER THE DIRECTION OF FRANK ABOTT.

The programme will feature some new ideas in presentation, worked out between Frank and Midland Region's Alan Macnabron, who conceived the idea of the broadcast. Abbott was chosen for this important broadcast by reason of his extensive experience and knowledge of Latin-American rhythms through which he gained during his stay in South America.

The band has already been booked for an important radio show in the Midlands region. The broadcast, which is expected to be a big hit, will be broadcast from a major Midlands hotel.

Among the artists featured will be......

"At the moment, I am looking forward to the broadcast at the Norfield Holly on Friday, 23rd August, which I hope will be a great success."
Steve Race's Record Column

Over and Over Again

Should Shearing Try Something Different?

The Voice

VOCAL MUSIC

"IT WILL be obvious, from the outset, that a newspaper like Musical Express is interested in the interests of music and music lovers alike...but we certainly are not in the business of being 'cheery'...not Long...not...and yet, it is the public's business if they...we assure you, that the...it is our duty to be...that is, of course, for the benefit of the...not that we are...but what it is...the public's business if they...".

Producing

"We have missed a film. It has been...".

Production

"We hope that...".

Misunderstanding

"But...".

GENE KELLY

The end song is "I Love You, Honey"

"Fare" and how we are...".

The end song is "I Love You, Honey"

"Fare" and how we are...".

BOOK REVIEW

They All Played in Ragtime

The latest book on American Music by Rudl Blesh & Harriet Janis

Reviewed by John Lucas (This book is now on sale in England)

New York. In early 1914, the younger musician even as a combination of the old-fashioned and the new. Under the auspices of the famous impresario, Douglass, the shows were presented with a lavish production that included many of the leading players of the time. The shows were a great success and ran for many years. The success of the shows continued throughout the rest of the decade, and they remained popular into the 1920s. The success of the shows continued throughout the rest of the decade, and they remained popular into the 1920s.

AND THEY ARE ALL REP"
The Jazz Scene SIGN UP WITH LONDON JAZZ CLUB
Crane River and Lyttelton Reshuffle

BY JAMES ASMAN

The New Crane River
In the last two weeks, beginning with George Webb and Bobby falling in Lyttelton, the New Crane River has not been active. With the temporarily partisan activities of the Crane River Jazz Band, the New Crane River has taken over, and with a new front and back, a new lineup, and a new face, Lyttelton is getting to know the New Crane River. Although the New Crane River Band has not been recognized, with George Webb and Bobby, it has been a different story. The New Crane River Band has not been active for some time, but the personnel of the Crane River Jazz Band, which includes George Webb and Bobby, has been active. With the new front and back, the New Crane River has taken over, and with a new face, Lyttelton is getting to know the New Crane River.

Lyttelton Changes for New Year
In the last two weeks, beginning with George Webb and Bobby, falling in Lyttelton, the New Crane River has not been active. With the temporarily partisan activities of the Crane River Jazz Band, the New Crane River has taken over, and with a new front and back, a new lineup, and a new face, Lyttelton is getting to know the New Crane River. Although the New Crane River Band has not been recognized, with George Webb and Bobby, it has been a different story. The New Crane River Band has not been active for some time, but the personnel of the Crane River Jazz Band, which includes George Webb and Bobby, has been active. With the new front and back, the New Crane River has taken over, and with a new face, Lyttelton is getting to know the New Crane River.

ENTRANCING COLOURED PIANIST WINIFRED ATWELL
Concert, Variety and New Recording Star

ALL FOREIGN RADIO?

MOVIE TALK

BY KEN RYAN

NOVEMBER 1950

PEERS TO MAKE FIRST FILM

By DANNY THOMAS

DANNY THOMAS gets the scoop at the London Film Centre.

DANNY THOMAS (34) the prolific actor, is now making his first film. "Happy Days," which he is following with "The End of the Road," will be released in the spring.

Though it is a bit early yet, the film is going to be a smash, according to the producer, who has been watching rehearsals.

DANNY THOMAS (34) the prolific actor, is now making his first film. "Happy Days," which he is following with "The End of the Road," will be released in the spring.

Though it is a bit early yet, the film is going to be a smash, according to the producer, who has been watching rehearsals.

DANNY THOMAS (34) the prolific actor, is now making his first film. "Happy Days," which he is following with "The End of the Road," will be released in the spring.

Though it is a bit early yet, the film is going to be a smash, according to the producer, who has been watching rehearsals.

DANNY THOMAS (34) the prolific actor, is now making his first film. "Happy Days," which he is following with "The End of the Road," will be released in the spring.

Though it is a bit early yet, the film is going to be a smash, according to the producer, who has been watching rehearsals.