JUNE ‘HIT PARADE’ ON SALE NEXT WEDNESDAY

ABOVE: The outgoing "tenant" of the star dressing-room at the London Palladium greets the "new arrival." Kitty Kallen chats with Danny Kaye, who took over this week as top of the bill. CENTRE: Canadian songwriter Patric Lewis, now searing, in variety, radio and screens. RIGHT: Yes, girls, it's a new picture of Jeff Chandler, who charms your eyes by his singing on the screen and your ears by his singing on his Brunswick recordings. BELOW LEFT: It was Erle Delaney's birthday last Sunday and, between accompanying Billy Eckstine at a Granada State concert, the singer presented him with this attractive birthday cake. BELOW CENTRE: Never since comedian Derek Way (left) started in show business has he been impersonating Bing Crosby, so you can imagine his thrill in seeing the "Hit Courtey" in person during his recent trip to Hollywood. BELOW RIGHT: Glamorous celebrities caught by the NME at last Saturday's gala opening of the Battersea Pleasure Gardens (l. to r.): Loraine Desmond, Nari Smith, Yvonne Lynn and Lisa Ruiz.
Stranger is Paradise" may be the title of a new record to be released by Lillian Bentley in the next month. She said, "It seems to me that there is a lot of interest in country music these days, and I think we'll see more records like this one in the future.

The gayest of all the gay shows is the 'Short Cut to the Top' at the Finsbury Park Empire. The audience is packed every night, and the acts are all fantastic. I saw the show last night, and I was blown away by the talent on display. It's definitely the place to be if you're looking for a good time.

I also saw the movie 'Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea' last weekend, and it was a real eye-opener. The special effects were amazing, and the acting was top-notch. I highly recommend it if you're a fan of sci-fi or adventure movies.

Finally, I want to say that I'm looking forward to seeing the new Tony Bennett album 'Rags to Riches' when it comes out next month. My favorite track is 'Can't Help Myself,' and I can't wait to hear the rest of the album.

That's all for now. I'll be sure to keep you updated on any new music or movie releases that catch my eye. Thanks for reading!
BILLY ECKSTINE is a strange one in "Over Time."
He made his first full-throated appearance in our popular series last June (NME dated 17/7/54). And now that we've had a chance to listen to him again, we can report that his voice is not only as powerful as ever, but is also more flexible and versatile. His range, which once seemed unlimited, has now grown to encompass a greater variety of emotions and expressions. He is a true master of the art of singing, and his performances are always a joy to watch.

QUESTION-TIME WITH THE STARS

BILLY ECKSTINE answers our readers' queries.

Am I right in thinking that when Billy Eckstine was in London, he was accompanied by a band that included saxophonist Dickie Valentine?

Yes, you are. Dickie Valentine was part of the band that accompanied Billy Eckstine during his London performances. He played saxophone with the group, and his contributions were significant to the overall sound.

What can you tell me about the.factory in which Billy Eckstine was recorded?

The factory in which Billy Eckstine was recorded is known for its high-quality sound and its role in recording many great musicians. It has a reputation for producing music of the highest standard, and it continues to be a popular choice for recording artists today.

Billy Eckstine seems to have a particular affinity for certain types of music. Can you tell me more about this?

Billy Eckstine has a strong affinity for music that is soulful and passionate. He is particularly drawn to music that has emotional depth and resonance, and he has a talent for conveying the inner workings of human emotions through his singing. His music often explores themes of love, loss, and resilience, and he has a unique ability to connect with listeners on a deep level.

What do you think are the key characteristics of Billy Eckstine's voice?

Billy Eckstine's voice is characterized by its power, emotion, and versatility. He has a broad range of emotional expression, and his voice is capable of conveying a wide range of moods and feelings. He is also known for his ability to connect with listeners on a deep level, and his music often leaves a lasting impact.

EVE'S BACK!

On her return from her South African triumphs, Eve Boswell is interviewed by Don Wedge.

Hello! Please excuse me for being so late!

*Thank you, I'm glad you could make it! Can you tell us about your experience in South Africa?

South Africa was an incredible experience. I had the opportunity to perform in some amazing venues and connect with audiences from all over the country. I was really moved by the energy and enthusiasm of the fans, and it was a great feeling to be part of something so special.

How did you approach your performances in South Africa?

*I approached each performance with the same level of dedication and enthusiasm. I wanted to give my best performance every time, and I was really happy with the reception I received. It was a wonderful experience, and I'm looking forward to coming back.

You're back in London now. Are you excited to be back in the UK?

Yes, I'm really excited to be back in London. I love performing here, and I always feel welcome. There's something special about performing in front of a British audience, and I can't wait to get started.

Where can people find out more about your upcoming shows?

*You can check out my website, facebook page, and Twitter for all the latest information about my upcoming shows and performances. I'm also on Instagram, where you can see some behind-the-scenes shots and photos from my recent performances.

---

Thank you for your time, Eve!

*Thank you, it was a pleasure! I'm looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Iris is a type of ballad that suited her personality well.

Nichols returns to British variety at the New Theatre, since it is most outstanding.

Saturda, music in a symbolic form—Jack Payne called them in and introduced the programme, and also did the interviewing. As seen on full screen and clever camera cutting on to the various sections greatly helped the dynamic effect of Jack's routine offering of their own and Arthur's "South American Perils." Wally Carr joins Stanley Black and STANLEY BLACK's search for a new singer to replace Larry Adler. Last, talked this week when he appeared in New Temple's Orchestra. Antwan and his have been very successful since before joining Temple.

Australian Crawford takes over at Southern Music.

AUSTRALIAN music man has taken over with a new band. Crawford, who was Harry von Winter's replacement in the show, is now enjoying himself just as much in his new role.

U.S. MUSICIANS' BAND TO DISCUSS HEARST MUSIC EXCHANGE DEAL.

The proposed Anglo-American band exchange as envisioned by the NME and the British Musicians' Union, now appears to be in jeopardy. On May 30th, the American Federation of Musicians announced its intention to negotiate a new contract with the Hearst Music Exchange Company. The union has been pressing for a series of contracts with the Hearst Music Exchange Company since last year and has so far been rebuffed. The new contract would have been a major step forward for the union, which is currently negotiating with the Hearst Music Exchange Company over a series of proposals for the music industry.

JIMMY JONES IS BUSY WITH RAY HAMMOND'S VARIETY, TV AND FILM.

Hard on the heels of last week's recording session, Ray Hammond has announced that Jimmy Jones will be heading to the U.S. to record a new album for the Hearst Music Exchange Company. Jones, who has been working with Hammond on a series of projects for the past year, is currently preparing for his first solo album for the company.

The New Musical Express (NME) is a weekly music magazine that has been in publication for many years. It is known for its coverage of the music industry and is a popular read for music lovers.

The magazine is available at newsagents and online.
I have been done a thousand times, me, as records sometimes do, and I first heard the tune on the radio, the with the impact of novelty fresh upon me.

Since then I have become more deeply interested in Annie, a member of the Follies Legion family. Being a team partner, I was sometimes heard to refer to her as the "Annie" in "Annie Get Your Gun."" And I have seen her in the film, singing "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody," which I think is a great song. She is a very fine singer, and I think she has a wonderful future in the business.

Annie Ross is a child of her environment, which was a fortunate one to stay in the house. I gather that the story of her success is not a very well-known one, but I heard her in New York, and I think she is a very fine singer. She has a wonderful voice, and I think she is a very fine actress as well. She is a very fine person, and I think she has a wonderful future in the business.

Annie Ross, as I have said, is a child of her environment. She was born in New York, and her father was a musician. She was very interested in music from the age of five, and she began to study singing at the age of nine. She attended the New York Conservatory of Music, and she graduated with honors.

PHILIPS recording artist Robert Earl, who signed up with the Well Collins affair two weeks ago, makes his debut as a novelty singer next month.

Robert Earl in Variety

Phillips recording artist Robert Earl, who signed up with the Well Collins affair two weeks ago, makes his debut as a novelty singer next month.

The songs at the Palace, Hall, on June 28, will be the launching of Robert Earl. The second week, the attention will shift to the Garden, Washington, Other South African Towns, and Newcastle on 11 July. Robert, whose current record, "I Wonder," has attracted much attention, has also looked to appeal to TV's "Variety Specials." He is working on a new album which is due to be issued shortly.

The Melee Mitchell Orchestra, who were under the direction of Mr. Mitchell himself, will be appearing on June 9 at the Royal Festival Hall.

Cecile Tipton, Alison Cogar, and Bruce Bostock of the group, along with some of the best musicians of the past few years, will be appearing at the Festival Hall on June 9.

They're both chained to a hit with 'Unchained Melody'!

AL HIBBLER

A STRANGE, almost traditional American holiday song, 'Unchained Melody' has become a huge success. That had to happen—or else it would have passed completely unnoticed. It's that kind of a hit that comes along once in a while. Fortunately for Al Hibbler, Decca (Herman Book) decided to take a chance on him and Al was on his first solo recording date for the label. It was started to sell fast in America, despite the strength of competition very strong in the country, and the hit of the year in 1953.

New name

Though the song was originally written for juvenile characters in the movie, it has become a hit among the older crowd. In fact, the New Musical Express recently underlined the fact that the hit song was not sung by the younger generation, but was really a children's hymn. The song has been recorded by a number of artists, including Al Hibbler, who has added his own style to the tune. He has been praised for his interpretation of the song, which is considered to be one of the best on the market.

Unchained Melody

The hit proportions of Hibbler's "Unchained Melody" have even startled some recording executives. "I didn't expect it," said a Decca executive. "But I'm glad we took a chance on Al."

Gimmick

A gimmick for this issue, "Unchained Melody" was discovered by Norman Grant, a hit song writer, who heard the song when he was in England. He was so impressed that he suggested to Hibbler that he record it as a solo. Hibbler agreed and the rest is history.

Eddie Parker to Marry

COLUMBIA vocal discovery, Eddie Parker marries Margaret Bond, a Sheffield civil servant, at Christ Church, West- end, on June 25. Eddie has been appearing with Eddie Cutter's show and Margaret is a singer. The couple met while working in "The Hollows," a show which was very popular.

New drummer, singer for Gracie

TONY CURTIS

LUMBER Pat Sheridan joins the Gracie Coe Orches- tra. "I joined them three months after leaving Berlin," he says. He has been playing with the group for two years and has since been in Berlin with their orchestra. He has been with Gracie since 1950.

STARS ON TV

An increasing number of pop singles and recording artists are appearing on TV programs in the next few weeks. The first is the "Merry Go Round" program, which will be appearing on ABC next week. The show features pop artists from all over the country, including Jimmy Young and Johnny Ray. The next is the "Hollywood Palace" program, which will be appearing on NBC next week. The show features pop artists from all over the country, including Tony Curtis and Gracie Humble.
