ANNE SHELTON was one of the many star visitors to visit JOHNNIE RAY in his dressing room at the London Palladium on Monday, after he had made yet another appearance at this theatre. As always, he was a very welcome visitor with the fans.

BELOW (center): CLIFF (1.) and CLAUDE TRENIER meet DICKIE VALENTINE. The Treniers are at the London Palladium with their eight-piece rock 'n' roll group.

BELOW (left): CONNIE FRANCIS is far from "Sorry Now" that her current recording has stayed at No. 2 position in the charts for two weeks, making it a double, as she is also in the American best sellers with her disc of "Who's Sorry Now."

BELOW (right): MARION RYAN and DAVID WHITFIELD appeared together in last week's "Jack Jackson Show," and although they sing for rival labels, they have always been the best of friends.

ELVIS PRESLEY keeps himself high in the best sellers. His "Wear My Ring" has gone to No. 4 in two weeks, which makes sure he won't be forgotten by his fans while away in the Army.

Sincere

There is no doubt in my mind that Jean was speaking with the greatest sincerity in her praise of Perry. She has been working with him for years, and during this time she has gained his respect. She tells me that he is a very personable man who always makes her feel welcome. She says that he is very warm and friendly, and that he always has a smile for everyone. She also says that he is very generous with his time and effort, and that he always goes out of his way to help others. She is convinced that he is a very special person, and that he is bound to achieve great things in the future.
Big bouquet to Cyril's 'Lullaby'

You must hear this platter whether you believe in love at first sight or not; it's a treat for anybody and everybody. A worthy winner from Decca.

COMO

Shouldn't be very long before Perry Como, RCA's version of Bing Crosby, makes a hit on his period. A good disc, but not my cup of tea. Only as good as Frankie Vamp's version for Philips.

WAYNE

There's home-made coverage of "I Love You, America" by Terry Wayne on the Columbia label, which is a bit different in its American formulation. I feel Perry will win in the long run. His disc is much more exciting than Perry's, and the British disc catches the American mood of the song demand.

CHERRY

In the words of one critic, is this the cherry on top of it all. It has much more to offer listeners than the Cherry Swing and the Bay City Singers.

GIbson

The cobbler from RCA is Don Gibson's 1st International 45, and it's no wonder that with words like those of "A Man of Value," it should win many a dance floor.

JAMES

Jose James has a pleasant voice to offer. His version of "Easter Parade" on Capitol is top quality. He's a worth winner from Capitol.

Frank, Keely, Billy wonder trio

A SPOT of inspired casting at Capitol, where they have brought Frank Sinatra, Keely Smith and Billy May together on one disc. "Here Are Ya' Fixed For Love?" has a robust swing to it, providing the ideal vehicle for Sinatra in his most diverting vocal form.

Cogan

For HMV, Alma Cogan sings "Stairway of Love," with the backing of the Royal Canadian Orchestra. Being a bouncy ditty it is well suited to a girl group, and it is in this vein that Miss Cogan has recorded. It will be interesting to see how the public react to it in the two weeks following its release.

NO DICTATORS for BELAFONTE

Harry Belafonte emblazoned a new political awareness in the Zine: "Nobody dictates..."

He wasn't interested in becoming a corporate entity or a commercial artist. He wanted to make music that he believed in and that represented his own personal style. When RCA Victor asked him to make an album, Belafonte decided to work with a new quartet and create music that truly represented him.

Belafonte added: "...they all resisted..."

Belafonte was a prominent activist and had been involved in various causes throughout his career. He was known for his dedication to social justice and his commitment to using his platform to raise awareness about important issues.

In an interview, Belafonte said, "...there are other skills that can be developed..."

Belafonte believed that musical talent was not the sole indicator of success. He encouraged individuals to develop other skills and pursue their passions, regardless of the conventional expectations.

Belafonte's commitment to his art and his activism was an inspiration to many, and his legacy continues to influence those who follow in his footsteps.
At the London Palladium

RAY SENDS 'EM HOME HAPPY

BACK for his sixth stint in six weeks at the London Palladium last week was Johnnie Ray. After a triumphant tour of thirty-eight weeks, he was back at the old familiar haunts. The audience greeted him with a roar. His popularity is undiminished. He is the king of the road, the master of his craft. He has a unique gift for winning the hearts of his audiences. His music is loved by all, from the young to the old. His voice is a source of joy to all who hear it.

TOPICAL

He got a bit of a kick out of a fan who asked him if he was planning to record a song about the bus strike. Johnnie Ray is known for his infectious personality and his ability to make even the most mundane topics interesting. He is a master of the unexpected. His fans love him for his spontaneity and his ability to keep them on the edge of their seats.

What are the chances of seeing Sue in the future? (Anne Heavens, Hants.)
A: Definitely. I sing with Bob and Sue in the band and she's so sweet, so I had no trouble asking her out. She's a wonderful temptress! I hope to see her again soon.

What is the best way to approach a girl in the United States? (Marilyn Abele, Scotland.)
A: A man should be honest and sincere in his approach. A girl likes to know that the person she is talking to is sincere and honest.

How do you finance your entertainment? (Rose Cohen, Birmingham.)
A: I finance my entertainment by playing the piano and singing for tips.

Show Biz soccer stars who beat the B & Js

The title ofshow Biz XI for '68 may be another issue from the usual list of soccer stars who beat the B & Js. But the list of soccer stars who will play for the B & Js this season may be another issue.

According to U.S. publication, a new team of soccer stars will play for the B & Js, and the team will be coached by Mike Tindall, the team manager of the British soccer team. The team will play 19 games, and the coach will be Mike Tindall, who is also the manager of the British soccer team.

The coach is a former soccer player who has played for many of the leading teams in the world, including the British soccer team. He has also played for the England national team, and he has been a coach for several clubs in the U.K. and Europe.

The team will play in the English Football League, and they are expected to do well in the league. The team is expected to be one of the strongest in the league, and they will be a strong competitor for the championship.
