CLIFF AND SHADOWS SET FOR AUTUMN PALLADIUM SEASON

CLIFF RICHARD is to star in a 22-week winter season of the London Palladium immediately after the family shows. Richard's manager, John Levy, says that the show will last for two months and is expected to attract a large audience. The plan is to bring in a new Domingo to replace the Shadow who will also be appearing on the bill. The run will be the first time the two groups will be in the same venue. The show is tentatively scheduled to open on Thursday, September 15, and run through until December 14. The Chris Barber Band is the musical supporting attraction until December 5, with the Shadows taking over on the 8th.

The Shadows are set for a Tuesday concert tour of Northern cities, starting in Edinburgh on Thursday, September 16. They will be the first appearance of the band since they were offered the Palladium slot two years ago.

SCOTT, LULU FOR CONCERT TOUR?

SCOTT WALKER may not tour with Lulu, who is to appear at the London Palladium in the near future. The project is at present being discussed by the two groups' managers, though not necessarily with the band's consent. The band is not keen on the idea and the project is not likely to proceed unless a contract is signed to ensure that the band will be paid for their appearances.

FACES TOP SWISS FEST, IRISH TOUR

The Faces have been invited to take part in the Swiss music festival, which is to be held in September. The festival is the largest of its kind in Switzerland and is expected to attract a large audience.

GEE'S U.S. TOUR DELAY SHOCK

The tour of the G.E.E.s to the United States has been delayed due to the illness of one of the band members. The tour is now scheduled to begin in October.
