LEAPY'S A COMPELLIVE CLOWN

LEAPY GRAMPIER later known to the world as Leapy Lee, is a com- pellive clown. At the age of 15 he saw Henny Youngman doing a show at the London Palladium. "I was a very impressionable young man," he says, "and I was at school at the time. I decided then that I wanted to be a comedian."

But you don't have to be a comedian to see the funny side of life, which is exactly what Leapy has done. He has been a window cleaner, a garage attendant and a postman, all of which he found very amusing.

Window cleaner

"I was a window cleaner," he says. "I used to clean the windows of the houses in the street. I found it very amusing. I used to make the people who lived in the houses laugh."

Garage attendant

"I was a garage attendant," he says. "I used to fill up cars with petrol. I found it very amusing. I used to make the people who came to the garage laugh."

Postman

"I was a postman," he says. "I used to deliver letters to people's homes. I found it very amusing. I used to make the people who received the letters laugh."

Naughty

"I was a naughty boy," he says. "I used to do things that were naughty. I found it very amusing. I used to make the people who were my parents laugh."

It's not me

"It's not me," he says. "It's not me."

OUR LIVE SHOWS MORE SUBVERSIVE THAN 'STREET FIGHTIN' MAN!'

Keith Richards

In that isolated audio with the bare grill which Rolling Stones Inc. is disposed to call a hit and up to the top floor where we stop with a sheathing crush, having apparently come in contact with some electric current, is the song you hear.

This is the group interrogation, known to the British press as the stones' house party, during which the group is supposed to be rehearsing songs for their future shows.

STONES’ AFRICA MOVIE

The Rolling Stones are almost certain to star in a major film—described as “weird, mad, bizarre”—to be made by a Hollywood production company in Africa in late December. The movie will be filmed in colour, with Mick Jagger as the central figure. Keith Richards will have a supporting role, as will Brian Jones depending on the outcome of his trial in connexion with an alleged drug offence. John Maynard will write the entire musical score, although it is unlikely the group will appear anywhere in the film as they play opposing characters in the story.

The movie is described as the “most anti-American, anti-Western picture ever made”. The film’s producer, a London-based film star, has said: “We’re going to have to find a way to make the mostpcs of the Stones’ music popular in Africa.”

Other film news:

EQUALS NEXT

The Equals and Syl will split in the next group competition, kathy

SLY, STONE TOUR SHOCK

Sly & The Family Stone will play in London in the next tour, kathy

CASUALS FOR FROST TV SHOW—PLUS BEACH BOYS’ PACKAGE?

The Casuals — up to No. 3 in this week's NME Chart with their British hit, "Out on the Weekend" — have been asked by the London TV show " Dannii Frost On Sunday" — to guest on the show. There is a strong possibility the group will also have a package deal for a six-week tour of the UK and Europe. (The band is also working on a new album.)

MOODIES PLAN SECOND LONDON CONCERT SOON

The Moody Blues plan to play in London when their current American tour is over. The band's manager, John merging, has confirmed the plans and said the group will play in London next month. The Moody Blues are currently touring the U.S. and are due to return to the UK in early January.

HERD JAPAN OFFER

The Herd are set to tour Japan in the near future. The group's manager, Bob Stockton, has confirmed the plans and said the tour is for the purpose of promoting the band's latest album. The Herd are currently working on a new album, which is due for release in the spring of next year.

U.S. FEARS FOR NICE SO DELAY

Herd, Partridge, Bruce singles, a Leavy revival, Beatles cover

The singles by the Herd, Bonzai, Bruce Channel on a play in a U.S. showcase for the Nice. The singles are expected to be released in the next few weeks.

AMEN ‘IN DISPUTE’

The current dispute between Amen (managed by Tom Jones, London) and its management company is due to be settled in court. The dispute centres around the control of the band's music, with Amen claiming to have sole control of the band's material.

RECORD SALES UP

A new report shows that record sales have increased by 20% in the past year. The report attributes the increase to the growing popularity of rock and roll music.

MICHAEL CARR DIES

Michael Carr, the former lead singer of the English rock band, has died at the age of 25. He was killed in a car crash last night in Paris. Carr was known for his powerful vocals and was a member of the band for five years.
