King Pacts New Faces

NEW YORK — King Records announced the signing of a book of new talent within the past few weeks. Heading the list is Milwaukee organ¬ istor Bob Kanev. Kanev’s first album, “Golden Years In Hi-Fi”, is a collection of twenty popular German waltzes and polkas, will be released August 1st. Ralph Bass, Chicago¬ based A & R man, recorded Kanev, and also a young R & B artist from Detroit, Tommy Love, doing “My Crazy Heart” b/w “Tell Me, Tell Me”, for King’s affiliate, Federal Records. Henry Glover, headquartered in New York, signed a young Manhattan R & B duo, Milty and Nat, and cut “Baby, I’m Coming Home To You” and “It’s Summertime” as their first release. Baltimore’s Johnny Darling cut his first DeLuxe (another King affiliate) session in New York last week under the direction of conduc¬ twarranger, Andy Gibson, performing “I Don’t Want To Wind Up In Love” b/w “Baseball Baby”. All the singles are scheduled for July 10th release.

In making this announcement, King execs emphasized the point of a "new look", and stated that these signings are only the first in King’s search for new faces.

Disk Biz Discussion

HOLLYWOOD — A discussion of the present-day record business will highlight the hour-long "Greet the People" television show to KTLA¬ TV, Monday, July 6th, at noon. Invited to serve on the five-man panel are Randy & The弓s Records; Leo Chudd, Imperial Records; Clyde Wallis, Music City Record Shop; Sammy Cahn, noted songwriter; and Irwin Zacker, independent record pro¬ moter.

Moderator of the show is Bill Bradley, former deejay at KLAC, Holly¬ wood, and previously with stations in New York and Detroit. He is the regular emcee of "Greet the People," a daily show, with question-and-answer period from viewers cupping Bradley’s interrogation of guests.
