Steve Lawrence—Columbia

One of the most successful club acts in the country is the very talented husband and wife team of Steve and Eydie. Since they joined in ’57 they have played the road play clubs, Major theaters with baseball with some of the top names of our profession. Their忧伤 songs of love and romance have been a major hit in their 51 recordings, the artists are already lauded in the industry with several awards.

Steve's first appearance in the public eye was in January of 1952 when he was an Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout show and was invited to appear on the Arthur Godfrey radio show. He immediately found success and in 1957, he was signed by the Columbia label. He sang over a million copies of "Dreamy," for which he was nominated for a Grammy Award. Steve Lawrence has released his new album, "Steve Lawrence Sings," which features standards from the 1920s to the 1950s.

Brenda Lee—Decca

Brenda Lee, the recently signed to Decca Records, has been on the music scene since the early 1960s. She had her first hit, "I'm Sorry," at the age of 12, and has gone on to have numerous hits since then. Her new album, "Brenda Lee," features a range of styles and genres, from country to rockabilly. Lee is known for her powerful vocals and catchy melodies.

Brenda Lee's cover of Patti Page's "Till the End of Time" was a huge hit in 1961 and helped launch her career. Lee's musical career has been marked by a mix of traditional and modern sounds, and she continues to be a popular artist today.

Beverly Lurie—Atlantic

Beverly Lurie, known for her unique blend of soul and jazz, has been a prominent figure in the music industry for several decades. Her album, "Beverly Lurie," features a mix of soulful ballads and energetic up-tempo numbers. Lurie's powerful vocals and skilled musicianship have earned her a dedicated fan base.

Beverly Lurie's hit single, "When The Cadillac Came," was a huge success in 1966 and helped solidify her place in the music industry. Her music continues to be celebrated for its soulful, heartfelt sound.

Little Peggy March—RCA Victor

Little Peggy March, who hit the top 10 in 1962 with "I Will Follow Him," has had several more hits since then, including "Do It Again," "The Tide Is High," and "I Know He's Mine." Her new album, "Little Peggy March," is a showcase of her diverse influences, ranging from Motown to rock and roll. March's unique vocals and catchy melodies have earned her a devoted following.

Little Peggy March's hit single, "Do It Again," was a huge success in 1964 and helped launch her career. Her music continues to be celebrated for its upbeat, fun sound.

Jackie DeShannon—Mercury

Jackie DeShannon, known for her strong vocal style and unique sound, has been a prominent figure in the music industry for several decades. Her new album, "Jackie DeShannon," features a mix of soulful ballads and energetic up-tempo numbers. DeShannon's powerful vocals and skilled musicianship have earned her a dedicated fan base.

Jackie DeShannon's hit single, "Sunday Kind Of Love," was a huge success in 1963 and helped launch her career. Her music continues to be celebrated for its soulful, heartfelt sound.

Laura Lee—Columbia

Laura Lee, known for her distinctive vocal style and strong performance, has been a prominent figure in the music industry for several decades. Her new album, "Laura Lee," features a mix of soulful ballads and energetic up-tempo numbers. Lee's powerful vocals and skilled musicianship have earned her a dedicated fan base.

Laura Lee's hit single, "I'll Never Fall In Love Again," was a huge success in 1962 and helped launch her career. Her music continues to be celebrated for its soulful, heartfelt sound.