Acting on defense complaints that the Justice Department has been sluggish in sharing the evidence from its investigation, Ideman ordered the Feds to turn over Grand Jury transcripts more expeditiously.

Tapscan, Strata Research Settle Up

Two companies that provide computerized audience research data have settled their defamation and trade infringement differences out of court. Birmingham, AL-based Tapscan had accused Chicago-based Strata Research of placing ads in trade publications to spread false information about Tapscan. It also accused Strata of obtaining Tapscan's computer discs to help design its own software system.

Strata President/CEO Roger Skolnik called the lawsuit "frivolous," and said his company agreed to a $20,000 settlement to avoid "at least two more years of litigation." Skolnik also said Tapscan had originally sought $100 million in damages.

Tapscan Exec. VP/COO Dan Carlisle remarked, "We're just glad to see a court-enforced standard of conduct in place that puts everybody on a level playing field." Both companies agreed not to badmouth each other in the future.

Gold KQFX/Austin ups PD Kelly Carls to GM, replacing Greg Hale, who moves into outdoor advertising in Houston.

In an attempt to unite and mobilize the creative forces (whether in A&R, advertising, graphic design, merchandising, publicity, or video) at work in the record industry, Virgin co-honchos Jeff Ayerhoff and Jordan Harris set up a meeting at L.A.'s Four Seasons hotel Wednesday (7/11) to "express our outrage at (censorship) policies which threaten free speech and smack of racism."

If The Suit Fits

- KWOD/Sacramento owner Ed Stolz has filed a $10 million libel suit in U.S. District Court against crosstown CHR KSFM (FM102). Stolz is enraged over comments that FM102

- Recently returned Rhino Sr. Dir./Promo Rich Schmidt exits for the VP/Marketing gig at Enigma, as Frenchy Gauthier segues to Enigma VP/Video. New to Enigma's regional staff is KCAL/Riverside MD Kim Alexander, who'll handle the lower half of the West Coast. And . . . look for significant forthcoming announcements about Sr. VP/Promo Sam Kaiser and Sr. VP/Sales Jayne Simon.

- Atco KC rep Lorie Counter is now doing Mercury's L.A. promotion. Mercury also lures Gaffen Detroit rep Justin Fountain for the same duties crosstown. Meanwhile, Mark LaSpina exits FMQB to rep Mercury in Philly, replacing Don Coddington, who moved to NY and the label's Dir./Nat'l CHR gig.

2 HOT 103 — Despite 2 Live Crew's problems at the Dallas Longhorn club this past weekend (not getting paid, not playing, audience rioting), the group performed two relatively hassle-free shows for KTFM (Hot 103)/San Antonio on Friday (7/6).

The first — a "clean" version — drew but 1000 people to a city park still soggy with the day's rain. Even so, the local "noise police" braved the mud to temporarily halt the show and demand the volume be lowered.

That night, however, a capacity crowd of 1500 packed — check out the top photo — a local club for the "nasty" show. Seen making the backstage scene along with a pair of 2 Live Crew members and their dancers are (back row, l-r) KTFM PD Rick "Big Dog" Hayes and morning dudes Sonny Melendrez and Mark Allen; (front row, l-r) morning driver Anna Deharo and OM Bob Perry.

morning man Chris Collins allegedly made on June 30, 1989 ("KWOD hates gays and blacks") as well as C.C.'s reportedly asking listeners to file complaints with the FCC. While no complaints were lodged, Stolz claimed advertisers and listeners turned the station off as a result of Collins's statements.

Collins was apparently responding to derogatory remarks that had been made by then-KWOD morning man Pat Garrett, which had caused an uproar in the local gay community. Stolz claims Collins's remarks also resulted in threats against his employees and a loss of business due to a subsequent drop in KWOD's ratings. FM102 VP/GM Jerry McKenna was unavailable for comment.

- EZ Communications has sent a formal letter to former B97/New Orleans PD Bob Mitchell warning of legal action over his working as a consultant at crosstown Hot AC WMXZ. Mitchell, who has 90 days left on his six-month noncompete clause, and WMXZ owner Stoner Broadcasting are checking their
