Edmonton's Biz
1st Three Days
Is Satisfactory

EDMONTON, Alta., July 18—Satisfactory attendance was recorded during the first three days of the Edmonton Exhibition, which opened last week, despite the curtailment of space that the city has been forced to make on the exhibition grounds for the Royal Canadian Air Force. The Edmonton Exhibition is one of the largest in the country and the managers of the exhibition departments and the Special Exhibition Department of the National Defense Council have received a new location. Under the new regulations, the exhibition is not open to the public.

Anderson's Annual Best in History;
Bond Sale Is Big

ANDERSON, Ind., July 18—Betting到底 newspaper a one of its most successful annals in its history here July 4. A patriotic program and fireworks opening night drew 35,000, the largest crowd ever seen on the grounds and more action at 35 cents admission.

Hallock Annual Successful

HALLOCK, Minn., July 18—Annual Kittson County Fair here, July 2-6, drew a record number of exhibitors, who were unanimous in praise of the weather and the facilities provided. The fair was held in conjunction with the annual Kittson County Fair, and is considered by many to be one of the outstanding annual events in the region.

Most States Further Plans

KANSAS—Topeka, Hutchinson and Coffeyville are on the ballot in the primary election. The Secretary of State is expected to announce the results soon. The election is scheduled for August 26.

MINNESOTA—Continues urgent urging of applications for the school year. The state is in a critical condition, and the state educational authorities are working hard to meet the needs of the schools.

Toledo, O., July 18—The principal of the Toledo High School, who has been on the front line of the battle against the epidemic, said that the school will continue to operate as usual. The local health department is doing all that can be done to combat the disease, and the school authorities are following the recommendations of the health authorities.

Ohio—The Board of Education has ordered the closing of all schools in the state, and the state superintendent of schools has been appointed to act as superintendent of the state. The schools will reopen for the fall term on September 1.

elements of this document were previously extracted for it. These elements are:

1. Post-War Exhibit
2. More Okays Vote
3. Arkansas State, District Execs
4. For Continuance
5. Little Rock, Ark., July 18—State, district, and county offices will be continued this year in Arkansas despite Joseph B. Hamilton's recent retirement. Governor Arthur has made it plain that he will not do anything to prevent the continuation of the state, district, and county offices. He has said that he will do nothing to prevent the continuation of the state, district, and county offices.

Miss. Directors
Vote To Continue

Mandan, Minn., July 18—A special meeting here on July 6 at which a resolution was adopted encouraging the continuation of the state, district, and county offices in Missouri. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 10 to 0.

Iowa Managers Urge Holding of Annuals To Aid War Effort

DEB, Moons, July 18—Iowa County Fair Manager's Association held a special meeting here July 16 at which a resolution was adopted encouraging the continuation of the state, district, and county offices in Missouri. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 10 to 0.

New Mexico Set;
Plans Mapped

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 18—A map showing the proposed plans for the New Mexico State Fair was presented to the state fair board of directors at a special meeting here July 18. The map showed the proposed plans for the fair, including the location of the various buildings and exhibits. The board approved the plans, and a committee was appointed to carry out the plans.

Arkansas State, District Execs
For Continuance

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 18—State, district, and county offices will be continued this year in Arkansas despite Joseph B. Hamilton's recent retirement. Governor Arthur has made it plain that he will not do anything to prevent the continuation of the state, district, and county offices. He has said that he will do nothing to prevent the continuation of the state, district, and county offices.

State board released this statement: "Governor, in his discussion of the question, said: "We have a duty to the state, and we will carry out the wishes of the people." The board also said that it was not the purpose of the state board to make any changes in the existing state, district, and county offices, but that it would do all that could be done to carry out the wishes of the people."