C&W Fans Like Live Talent

*Continued from page 15

Music as Written

 Bundy following her four-week stint at the Royal Nevada, Las Vegas... Ethel Waters makes her first appearance on the Strip in opening for a 10-day stand at the Crescendo... Pete Road into pack with indie Sunset Records last week... Skip Morris has completed his music assignment for the Las Vegas Story... Johnny Daniels is on the air to record a scene of pictures for the show, with George Cotes conducting... Frankie Cole slated to take an act on the road tap to go with Frankie Cole and His Sweetheart... The aged bass singer of the old-time string band, formed in Chicago in 1921, and has been working in vaudeville and night clubs for many years, was here today to play a scene in the movie under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Lee, who own the L. S. Music Corp.

In the business for 35 years, Albert has been a radio personality as well as a musician. He has recorded several numbers and has been a regular on many of the popular radio programs. Albert is a versatile musician and has played the accordion, banjo, guitar, and drums. He has been a member of several bands and has worked in many nightclubs. He has also been a teacher of music and has given many concerts. Albert is a member of the American Federation of Musicians and the American Guild of Musical Arts. He has been active in the local music community and has been involved in many musical events. Albert's musical career has been marked by his dedication to music and his ability to adapt to different musical styles and genres. He has been a source of inspiration to many young musicians and has been a role model for them. Albert's legacy in the music industry will be remembered for his contributions to the development of music and for his dedication to the art form.