FOLK TALENT & TUNES

BY BILL SACHS

WLW's "Midwestern Hayride," highlighting Pee Wee King, and "The Big Four," led by Hal Frederick, began its first weekly radio show on March 1, 1950. The show featured a band of eight musicians, including fiddler Dave Trimble, violinist Bill Bowers, and accordionist Eddie Holman. The show, broadcast from WLW's studios in Cincinnati, lasted for 16 minutes and was transmitted locally and nationally.

Cleveland, June 6—Strengthening its position as the area's top-rated music program, "WINKY CITY" announced the addition of the chairman of the board of the RKO Radio Corporation of America, Inc., General Telephone and Electronics Corporation, to its advisory board. The addition of the chairman, who is also the president of General Telephone and Electronics Corporation, is expected to strengthen the program's position as the nation's leading music program.

General Thomas, the first representative of business management ever to address an AFN conference, will be discussing wage and labor-management relations at the forthcoming AFN conference in Cleveland. The discussion will be held in conjunction with the general session of the conference, which is scheduled for June 26-28.

Pointing up the necessity for continued study of the labor-management problem, General Thomas emphasized the importance of understanding the nature of the problem. He pointed out that, while the problem is complex, it is not insurmountable. He said that, in order to solve the problem, it is necessary to have a clear understanding of the nature of the problem.

In a recent interview, General Thomas said, "It is our hope that, through the proper training of labor and management leaders, the problem of the labor-management relationship can be solved."

economic...