New Eckstine Style Clicks At Crescendo

HOLLYWOOD — In his last Stamps show last week, Harry backed on a lengthy tour of Europe, to await the release of his new set at the Crescendo here. All indications are that this is a new Eckstine album, and that the change bearyly endorses this quintet.

Eckstine has apparently decided to drop his efforts to bend notes, which is his usual procedure, also turn and a series of vocal proclamations of other pop singers be managed to the girl. His choice of repertoire is skillfully balanced and it displays a tremendous assortment, and his latest RCA Victor work, "Bitter With The Sweet.

Record fans can expect to look for potential hit Eckstine recordings in the future, which picture here is an indication. Joel Friedman.

Decca Adds 6 Jazz LP’s To Catalog

NEW YORK — Six new Decca albums have just been added to the growing Decca Records list.
Each month the list is being expanded, and the Decca man, who has always been out to beat his rivals in the music market, is now going full speed, and Decca has announced six new albums to its list, all of which are expected to sell well.

New artists to be heard on the new albums are: Artie Shaw, Kitty Kallen, and Gypsy Clay, who will appear on one album, and the Count Trinity, who will appear on another.

The new albums will be available at record stores in all parts of the country, and will be sold at prices ranging from $3.98 to $5.98.

What Would Victoria Say?

LONDON — Rock and roll will invade sdeate Albert Hall here, where debut Alan Freed (who has been working for WJR and stage shows in the United States) for October, the Freed concert will mark the first invasion of England by rock and roll.

By that time, of course, Freed hopes that his new Radio Luxembourg concerts (see separate story on this page) will have created an enthusiasm for the show. If the London performance succeeds, Freed will do a series of rock and roll concerts on the Continent.

Venus Label Plans Held Up By Oberstein

NEW YORK — Eli Oberstein has temporarily suspended his plans for a pop singles label in order to preserve his company's position in the low-priced field.

The veteran disk mogul's prospected Venus label, announced several weeks ago, will now be held in abeyance by Oberstein's new company, which is seeking to expand its operations in the pop field.

will be in charge of all Oberstein and Venus activities,
and will be in the hands of James Monroe, who has been active in the disk industry for many years.
