THE BILLYBOARDS DEPARTMENT

Teresa Brewer, the star girl with a big voice, took over the No. 1 spot on the Billboard Spe- cialist with her latest on Capitol, "Pray for My Mistake." This is sure to cause excitement among fans. Brewer, who has a sweet, velvety voice, is known for her grace and charm. She is always a hit and this new release is sure to please her fans.

Johnny Burnette, who recorded for Vanguard Records, a school of Lib- eral, is a unique talent. He has his own style and is known for his powerful voice and dynamic stage presence. Burnette is a true musical genius and his music is always a hit with fans.

Charlie Feathers, one of the leading country stars, has released a new album on RCA Victor. This album features a variety of country songs and is sure to please fans of the genre. Feathers has a distinctive voice and is known for his thoughtful lyrics and strong performance.

Aretha Franklin, one of the biggest names in soul music, has released a new album on Atlantic Records. This album features some of her best known songs and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Pete King Choralie, a popular gospel group, has released a new album on Stax Records. This album features some of their best known gospel songs and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Gene Krupa, the legendary drummer, has released a new album on Decca Records. This album features some of his best known drum solos and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Louis Prima and Keely Smith, a popular vocal duo, have released a new album on Capitol Records. This album features some of their best known songs and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Conway Twitty, a popular country star, has released a new album on Warner Brothers Records. This album features some of his best known songs and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Roger Williams, a popular pianist, has released a new album on Capitol Records. This album features some of his best known piano solos and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Cincinnati King Records proxy, Syd Nathan, and the firm's general man- ager, Hal Ferl, flew out of New York Saturday (23) for London, where they will appear before the Census Bureau's Committee on the Census. Their next stop will be in Paris, where they will attend a meeting of the International Federation of Phonographic Industries. Their itinerary then takes them to Rome, Paris, and London, where they will attend a meeting of the International Committee on the Census. Their final stop will be in New York, where they will attend a meeting of the International Federation of Phonographic Industries.

Bill White, dean of local song pluggers and well known in the industry, is leaving for a trip to the coast. He plans to visit several companies and will be back in town by the end of the week. White is a respected figure in the industry and his visit is always anticipated by his colleagues.

Here are this week's top 10 records on the Billboard chart:

1. "What a Wonderful World" by Louis Armstrong
2. "My Way" by Frank Sinatra
3. "Ain't No Mountain High Enough" by Marvin Gaye and Tammi Terrell
4. "Yesterday" by The Beatles
5. "Imagine" by John Lennon
6. "Let It Be" by The Beatles
7. "The Sound of Music" by Julie Andrews
8. "What a Diff'rence a Day Makes" by Billie Holiday
9. "Moody Lake" by The Drifters
10. "You Are My Sunshine" by The Everly Brothers

According to statistics maintained over a period covering thousands of releases, 7 out of 10 reach Billboard's "100 Hot" in the weeks ahead.

Every week... 3 disk jockeys all over the nation have spotted our top record shows...we have the only record that is freshest and most excitingly furnished. The Billboard Chart, watch it for yourself.

TO HELP YOU GET THE MOST out of your money, we've just released a new self-help book, "How to Help Yourself to Success in Your Business or Career." It's packed with practical advice and has been written by a successful businessman. Check it out at your local bookstore.

JANUARY 25, 1960

MUSIC AS WRITTEN

New York

Bob Crystal, manager of Mike Stewart's Karwin Music firm, is leaving Karwin this week to go into packaging and promotion work. At the Radio City Music Hall, he will coordinate the activities of packagers and designers for the Music Hall in New York. At Karwin, he was responsible for the design and promotion of the company's records. Bob's new position will be a significant move for his career and he is looking forward to the challenge.

Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II were awarded the Gold Medal of the Performing Rights Society, for their contribution to the music industry. The award was presented to them in recognition of their work on such musicals as "The Sound of Music," "West Side Story," and "South Pacific." The award ceremony was held at the Gotham Hall in New York.

Berne Katz, comptroller for Pickwick Records Corporation, became the father of a baby girl recently named Graceland Susan. Katz was the son of the late and legendary composer, Leonard Bernstein. The baby girl is the first grandchild of Katz and his wife. Graceland Susan is a fitting name for the new arrival, considering her father's musicalBackground.

Bill Simms, a local disc jockey, has released a new album on Capitol Records. This album features some of his best known songs and is sure to please fans of the genre.

Cincinnati King Records proxy, Syd Nathan, and the firm's general manager, Hal Ferl, flew out of New York Saturday (23) for London, where they will appear before the Census Bureau's Committee on the Census. Their next stop will be in Paris, where they will attend a meeting of the International Federation of Phonographic Industries. Their itinerary then takes them to Rome, Paris, and London, where they will attend a meeting of the International Committee on the Census. Their final stop will be in New York, where they will attend a meeting of the International Federation of Phonographic Industries.

Bill White, dean of local song pluggers and well known in the industry, is leaving for a trip to the coast. He plans to visit several companies and will be back in town by the end of the week. White is a respected figure in the industry and his visit is always anticipated by his colleagues.

Here are this week's top 10 records on the Billboard chart:

1. "What a Wonderful World" by Louis Armstrong
2. "My Way" by Frank Sinatra
3. "Ain't No Mountain High Enough" by Marvin Gaye and Tammi Terrell
4. "Yesterday" by The Beatles
5. "Imagine" by John Lennon
6. "Let It Be" by The Beatles
7. "The Sound of Music" by Julie Andrews
8. "What a Diff'rence a Day Makes" by Billie Holiday
9. "Moody Lake" by The Drifters
10. "You Are My Sunshine" by The Everly Brothers

According to statistics maintained over a period covering thousands of releases, 7 out of 10 reach Billboard's "100 Hot" in the weeks ahead.

Every week... 3 disk jockeys all over the nation have spotted our top record shows...we have the only record that is freshest and most excitingly furnished. The Billboard Chart, watch it for yourself.