sion show. Formerly on the Hickory label, the pair has just had its first release on Allstar, "I'll Always Love You."

Johnny Cash's upcoming "Hootenanny" TV appearance from Dartmouth College will mark his fourth network appearance in five weeks. Also upcoming is a shot on Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show the first week in March. . . . Buddy Meredith hopped into Nashville January 23 to cut his first session for Rice Records. Couplings, "Trapper Man" and "Almost Out of My Mind," are slated for release February 3. George Kent, also new on Rice Records, will have his initial release for the label around mid-February. . . . Jimmy Key, of Newkeys Music and Key Talent, leaves Nashville February 5 for a promotional swing through the Southwest and West.

Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs were in Hollywood last week to film another guest appearance on CBS's "Beverly Hillbillies" TV-er. They are also skedded for shots on ABC's "Hootenanny" February 8 and March 14. . . . Rose Maddox, working her first tour for Hitt Attractions of Dallas, has been winging it on one-nighters through Texas, Colorado and Idaho, and winds up the trek Saturday (8) at Shreveport, La. . . . Mac Wiseman, of Hal Smith's Artists Productions, Goodlettsville, Tenn., has a new release on Capitol, coupling "The Scene of the Crime" and "Tis So Sweet to be Remembered."

Cousin Richie, of Eddie

Zack's "Hayloft Jamboree," heard daily on WRIB, Providence, R. I., has a new record out called "Tramp on the Street." Deejays may obtain a copy by writing to Richie at the station. . . . Glaser Publications, Nashville, owned by Tompall and the Glaser Brothers, has just signed Jim Lunsford to an exclusive writer's pact. Jim is the nephew of Bascomb Lamar Lunsford, folk music authority known as the Minstrel of the Appalachians. Tompall and the Glasers entertained at a luncheon for the Tennessee Press Association at the Hermitage Hotel, Nashville, January 24.

Ernest Tubb's Texas Troubadours have recorded an album on their own for Decca, with release set for around mid-February. Title: "The Texas Troubadours." . . . Smiley Wilson, of the Wil-Helm Agency, Nashville, has set Georgie Riddle for a 15-day tour of Minnesota, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Indiana, to be followed by a swing through North Carolina. . . . Rusty York and Bobby Bare opened Thursday (30) at the Holiday Hotel in downtown Reno, Nev., for two weeks with options. . . . Ernest Ashworth is routed for Winston-Salem, N. C., February 8; Minneapolis, 15; Hammond, Ind., 16, and Norfolk, Va., 23. . . . Buck Owens and His Buckeroos will put in February touring California, Oregon and Washington. Chuck Seitz, until recently an engineer at King Records, Cincinnati, has joined RCA Victor in Nashville in a similar capacity.

JACK!

Jack Jones (the Jones to keep up with) sings the great theme song from the new movie.
