LIZ DAMON'S ORIENT EXPRESS

Hilton Hawaiian Village, Honolulu

This is a 10-piece aggregation which is starting to roar down the musical track of pop music. The new White Whale group, through its affiliation with Makaha Records, has become a hot attraction hereabouts, with long lines of young people waiting to get into the Garden Bar where the softly romantic harmonies, coupled with precise instrumental tracks, create a very pleasant listening and dancing environment.

Miss Damon, who has been working this room for one year, blends in vocally with her seven musicians and two girl singers, all dressed neatly and stylishly and presenting a clean cut image.

This is a pure pop band, filtering in the excitement of Latin music, with the two trumpets and one trombone playing the melody with the electric guitarist to create a good strong sound. Infectious organ bridges working in concert with the electric bassist, added a funky feeling to the untitled Santana song.

"Sweet Caroline," "Something," "Sweet Blindness," and "We've Only Just Begun" helped communicate with the packed house. This band is ready for the Mainland and major rooms.
