BITE & PASSION

One of the most surprising comeback albums of this year is Warren Zevon's Sentimental Hygiene. His debut for Virgin (and Virgin's first signing since the launch of its US Division last summer), follows six releases on Asylum Records of which 1982's 'The Envoy' was his last studio album. The 10 songs on the new album have more bite and passion than ever before and with the help of people like George Clinton, Bob Dylan, Neil Young and REM, Zevon's songwriting brilliance is more prominent than ever. Although simple and straightforward at first hearings, extended plays reveal the inventiveness of the arrangements and the catchy compositions. Best tracks include Sentimental Hygiene, Room Boom Manchini, Wanted: Waiving To Happen and Leave My Monkey Alone.

Angel Eyes by Kiki Dee consists of 10 contagious soul/song songs ranging from intimate ballads to exciting up-tempo material. Arranged and produced by Eurhythms (the late Stewart and Patrick Seymour) it's currently being worked with Eurhythms too), Kiki Dee is doing a good job with her powerful soulful vocals. Check out We Cry On, a great single candidate, Another Day Comes, with a trumpet solo by Hugh Masekela and featuring a gospel choir, and the musical Knowing You Like I Do.

Although Toyah's Desire (her first album for two years) is unlikely to appeal to a wide audience, the inclusion of husband Robert Fripp and Ron Wood as guitarists makes it far more interesting. Toyah's trademark of energetic, epic rock, punk-based but with sophisticated and exalted edges, has now been linked up with more elaborate arrangements. Produced by Mike Hedges (Siouxsie & The Banshees, Marc Almond, Everything But The Girl), best tracks include Echo Beach, the current single, Love The World with its recognisable Fripp touch, the lyrical Deadly As A Woman and Revive The Undead, once a hit for Donna Summer.

Into The Woods, by American act The Call, features 9 dramatic rock songs, sometimes even pathetic, with predominant, mesmerising guitars and very likely to 'hypnotize' a very broad audience. Pretty much on the same line as U2, although more blues-orientated. Best tracks include In The River, Expecting, Memory and Walk Walk. This band is definitely the next big thing!

Michael Franks, Mr. Smoothy himself, continues his specific style of yuppie pop jazz on his latest Warner album The Camera Never Lies. The main ingredients of his music are simple and effective: unobtrusive, relaxing music with hardly a rough edge. Although for a specific market only - very likely to appeal to the 30 plus age bracket.

Jean-Michel Jarre's In Concert Lyon-Houston album is likely to enter the Hot 100 soon, knowing his loyal European audiences. His last album 'Rendez Vous' climbed as far as no. 4 in the Hot 100 last year. The new live album combines Jarre's stunning spectacles in Houston, dedicated to the astronauts who died on board the challenger shuttle and Lyon celebrating the visit of the Pope to that city. Highly textured, hypnotic music, including well known songs such as Oxygene, Equinoxe and the beautiful Ron's Piece.
